Children who stand by while a friend is being teased and bullied may be uneasy or even scared that they might be next
They feel powerless and learn negative ways to interact with others Teachers have the opportunity to work with bystanders helping them to develop the confidence to stand up for a friend
As a result children will become more able to stand up for themselves and not tolerate teasing and bullying behavior
The Anti Bullying and Teasing Book creates an environment that reinforces the positive messages essential to children's sense of safety and well being
Some such messages are quoted from Hurt Free Schools by M Christine Mattise
If you are hurt on the playground someone will come to see if you are all right
If you are alone you are welcome to join in a game
If you are being teased other children will come and tell the teaser to stop
If you need help ask an adult
When certain social milestones and goals are achieved children can easily live and work within their world
According to the National Association for the Education of Young Children NAEYC Code of Ethical Conduct these goals can be stated in terms of democratic life skills which include the ability to see one's self as a worthy individual and a capable member of the group express strong emotions in non hurting ways solve problems ethically and intelligently be understanding of the feeling and viewpoints of others work cooperatively in groups with acceptance of the human differences among members Teachers have a major influence on how children view themselves within the larger world
Children mimic teachers language and interactions
