Calif Rich:

California Rich Stephen Birmingham, 2024-05-14 A downright intriguing history chronicling of the creation of the Californian Dream Los Angeles Times Since the Gold Rush California has represented a land of opportunity for a special breed of American Heading west in pursuit of sunshine riches and elusive dreams the early mavericks of California set out to make their fortunes and often succeeded beyond their wildest imaginations Prospectors became oil tycoons squatters became cattle barons and farmers wives became grandees of a new rough hewn society In California Rich Stephen Birmingham explores this fascinating social history showing how the ruling class of California was born and how it evolved a lifestyle that continues to fascinate the world Its colorful array of characters include the despotic media mogul William Randolph Hearst governor and railroad baron Leland Stanford and real estate magnate James Irvine who attended business meetings with an entire pack of hunting dogs In exploring how these self made millionaires acquired their money and what they did with it Birmingham sheds light on the customs and quirks of California wealth and how the state came to symbolize the easy opulent life that still entices seekers of fame and fortune today
