Reconstructing Modernism Ashley Maher, 2020-03-12 Reconstructing Modernism establishes for the first time the centrality of modernist buildings and architectural periodicals to British mid century literature Drawing upon a wealth of previously unexplored architectural criticism by British authors this book reveals how arguments about architecture led to innovations in literature as well as to redesigns in the concept of modernism itself While the city has long been a focus of literary modernist studies architectural modernism has never had its due Scholars usually characterize architectural modernism as a parallel modernism or even an incompatible modernism to literature Giving special attention to dystopian classics Brave New World and Nineteen Eighty Four this study argues that sustained attention to modern architecture shaped mid century authors political and aesthetic commitments After many writers deemed modernist architects to be agents for communism and other collectivist movements they squared themselves and literary modernist detachment and aesthetic autonomy against the seemingly tyrannical utopianism of modern architecture literary aesthetic qualities were reclaimed as political qualities In this way Reconstructing Modernism redraws the boundaries of literary modernist studies rather than simply adding to its canon it argues that the responsibility for defining literary modernism for the mid century public was shared by an incredible variety of authors Edwardians modernists satirists and even anti modernists Rotting Hill Percy Wyndham Lewis, 2022-08-10 This work was one of the most famous political writings that described Wyndham Lewis hatred of the post World War II Labour Government under Clement Attlee It consists of a series of short episodes where Lewis appears as himself but the other characters are mostly fictitious A must read collection of stories that illustrate the main theme brilliantly Tales of the Caliphs Claud Field, 1909 Caliphs and Sultans Sylvanus Charles Thorp Hanley, 1870 History of the Caliphs Suyūṭī, 1881 History of the Caliphs Ġalāl-ad-Dīn 'Abd-ar-Raḥmān Ibn-Abī-Bakr as-Suyūṭī, 1880 The City of the Caliphs Eustace Alfred Reynolds-Ball, 1897 The Caliphs' Last Heritage Mark Sykes, 1915 In this book Lt Col Sir Mark Sykes sets out to correct what he felt were the misguided impressions people had of the Ottoman Empire in 1915 From his own visits to the region he felt that there is nothing in our daily private life or public life today which is not directly or indirectly influenced by some human movement that took place in this zone He firstly discusses different periods from its history from the Roman and Persian influence to that of Muhammad and the introduction of Islam to Sulaiman the Magnificent s triumph in Baghdad In this way Sykes hopes to impart to the reader the extent of the important role played by the Empire through time The tone then changes and becomes more personal as the reader is granted access to the Colonel s own diaries and experiences in order to add more color and insight to the historical facts
