Call Her Dolores:

They Called Her Bitter Green S.P. Peredo,2025-12-05 Once again S P Peredo draws from both personal experiences and his imagination to present a collection of engaging stories During a visit to a museum in Alaska Judy sees the photograph of a woman with an uncanny resemblance to her and sets out to solve the mystery behind it During a camping trip a man who nearly drowns has a near death vision that alters how he thinks about his own mortality the life story of a young Mexican man who perishes in his attempt to enter the United States Illegally shows the gentle human side of migrants seeking a better life A sensitive young man is moved by the paranormal experiences centred around his mother s death a fantastical allegory of human society as seen through the lives of ectoparasites that live and thrive on human skin A comical yet sad street musician in Mexico City finds an opportunity for success through a chance encounter with two boys on their way to school An old man through an amazing dream and his love for a young woman finds a glimpse of eternity an audacious man who never thinks twice about consequences In his quest for adventure These heartfelt beautifully written stories full of vivid imagery are evocative in their range of themes that lead intriguing characters to encounter the spectrum of human emotions including friendship betrayal hope despair and love Belgravia ,1869 Belgravia Mary Elizabeth Braddon,1869
