A Distant Mirror Barbara Wertheim Tuchman, 1996-06-06 Wise witty and wonderful A great book in a great historical tradition Commentary The 14th century gives us back two contradictory images a glittering time of crusades and castles cathedrals and chivalry and a dark time of ferocity and spiritual agony a world plunged into a chaos of war fear and the Plague Barbara Tuchman anatomizes the century revealing both the great rhythms of history and the grain and texture of domestic life as it was lived A distant mirror, the calamitous 14th century Barbara W. Problematics of Military Power Michael S. Drake, 2013-10-18 This book traces the relations between the organization of violence and social and political order from ancient Rome to early modern Europe Following the work of Michel Foucault the author studies the ways authority obedience and forms of self conduct were produced by the micro techniques used to govern the bodies of violence deployed in different forms of warfare Affective medievalism Thomas A.

Prendergast, Stephanie Trigg, 2018-09-25 This book investigates the troubled relationship between medieval studies and medievalism Acknowledging that the medieval and medievalism are mutually constitutive and that their texts can be read using similar strategies it argues that medieval writers offer powerful models for the ways in which contemporary desire determines the constitution of the past This desire can not only connect us with the past but can reconnect readers in the present with the lost history of what may be called the medievalism of the medievals In other words to come to terms with the history of the medieval is to understand that it already offers us a model of how to relate to the past A Distant Mirror
