Distant Song:

Romantic Lieder and the Search for Lost Paradise Marjorie Wing Hirsch, 2007 This book examines the theme of lost paradise in Lieder by nineteenth century composers including Franz Schubert Siegfried Sassoon Patrick Campbell, 2007-08-13 Though Siegfried Sassoon would argue the point throughout his life most critics regard his war poetry written during World War I as the best of his writings Like many of his artistic contemporaries Sassoon embraced the Great War for Civilization with great fervor and it was this passion that he brought to his earliest writings about the war Absolution his first war poem published in 1915 summed up his feelings fighting for our freedom we are free Fighting on the frontlines Sassoon soon came to the conviction that his war for civilization was anything but civilized And thus his writings took on a new tone courageously denouncing a conflict that was no longer about defense and liberation but was for aggression and conquest Through primary documents and extensive research the current work provides critical analyses of Sassoon s war poetry Detailed examinations of each of the so called trench poems show how the poet and his poetry were transformed through his wartime experiences and give the rationale for the critical consensus that the Sassoon canon is among the most significant in the literature of modern warfare Gabriel Faur?*The Songs and their Poets Graham Johnson, 2017-07-05 The career of Gabriel Faur s a composer of songs for voice and piano traverses six decades 1862 1921 almost the whole history of French m die is contained within these parameters In the 1860s Faur the lifelong prot of Camille Saint Sa was a suavely precocious student he was part of Pauline Viardot s circle in the 1870s and he nearly married her daughter Pointed in the direction of symbolist poetry by Robert de Montesquiou in 1886 Faur as the favoured composer from the early 1890s of Winnarretta Singer later Princesse de Polignac and his songs were revered by Marcel Proust In 1905 he became director of the Paris Conservatoire and he composed his most profound music in old age His existence steadily productive and outwardly imperturbable was undermined by self doubt an unhappy marriage and a tragic loss of hearing In this detailed study Graham Johnson places the vocal music within twin contexts Faur own life story and the parallel lives of his many poets We encounter such giants as Charles Baudelaire and Paul Verlaine the patrician Leconte de Lisle the forgotten Armand Silvestre and the Belgian symbolist Charles Van Lerberghe The chronological range of the narrative encompasses Faur first poet Victor Hugo who railed against Napoleon III in the 1850s and the last Jean de La Ville de Mirmont killed in action in the First World War In this comprehensive and richly illustrated study each of Faur 109 songs receives a separate commentary Additional chapters for the student singer and serious music lover discuss interpretation and performance in both aesthetical and practical terms Richard Stokes provides parallel English translations of the original French texts In the twenty first century musical modernity is evaluated differently from the way it was assessed thirty years ago Faur s no longer merely a Master of Charms circumscribed by the belle que His status as a great composer of timeless The Power of Dante Charles Hall Grandgent, 1918 Woman's Missionary Friend ,1903 Record of Christian Work Alexander McConnell, William
