

The Girl I Left Behind Me

Words 18 century
 Music anon.

The words of this song can be traced back to the mid-18th century. Around 1759 there were many encampments along the south coast of England anticipating French invasion. The tune, which is anonymous, is sometimes known as Brighton Camp. It is still played by the British Army on occasions of departure.

Firmly, with movement

The musical score is presented in a piano-vocal format. It begins with a piano introduction in G major, 4/4 time, marked 'Firmly, with movement'. The introduction consists of five measures. The first system includes a capo instruction: '(Capo on 3rd fret): G A D G E7 A'. The vocal line starts in the second measure of the first system. The lyrics are: 'I, I'm lone-some since I crossed the hill, And o'er the moor and val-ley, Such hea-vy thoughts my heart do fill, Since part-ing with my Sal-by, I seek no more the fine or gay, For each does but re-mind me How'. The score includes a grand staff with treble and bass clefs, a vocal line with lyrics, and guitar accompaniment with chord diagrams and chord names (Bb, C, F, G, A, Dm, C7, D7, G7, C). A large watermark is visible in the center of the page.
