Europe as a whole but also for selected countries and compares growth and shrinkage from a historical as well as a theoretical perspective In addition the book critically reviews relevant notions from geography sociology and public administration It also identifies good practices across Europe Throughout theories are complemented with concrete examples and proposals are made on how to tackle demographic shrinkage in European cities and villages from attempts to attract new residents to the countryside to innovative ways to guarantee public services In the end the authors conclude that solving the challenges caused by population decline require novel ways of thinking and provide answers to such future oriented questions as how to ensure the quality of life in an environment that is inhabited by fewer and older people what investments are needed and which actors should be involved Managing Population Decline in Europe's Urban and Rural Areas offers detailed coverage of an underestimated and complex governance issue that asks for solutions in which citizens have to play an important role It concludes that shrinkage requires a rethink of the specific tasks and roles of government and presents a way forward based on initiatives currently underway throughout Europe The book will be a valuable resource for population policy makers as well as students and researchers interested in human geography urban planning rural development European studies public administration and other social sciences California Business, 1994 Marketing Communications Ze Zook, PR Smith, 2016-02-03 Marketing Communications provides a comprehensive overview of every aspect of marketing communications from social media advertising PR and sponsorship to direct selling and merchandizing It presents modern marketing communications theories and tools in an accessible way so readers can fully understand the landscape and achieve better results With a plethora of examples and case studies as well as online support material for lecturers and students this essential textbook will guide students and practitioners through everything they need to know about the changing face of marketing This fully updated 6th edition of Marketing Communications features more of the underpinning theory whilst building on its impressive reputation as a leading practical textbook on the subject Case studies and anecdotes from companies such as Campbell's Soup Spotify Paypal Kraft and Nike focus on recent digital developments to bring the latest marketing tools to life With a particular emphasis on analytics engagement and integration it addresses the integrated offline and online with social media approach to reflect the current state of play for marketing communications experts This edition is also supported by a wealth of online resources including lecture slides for every chapter and self tests for students The Changing Face of Today's Customer Doug Lipp, 2003 This book written by a former head trainer at the Walt Disney University tells readers how to design an individualized customer service system for their industry Crafting and Executing Strategy Alex Janes, Ciara Sutton, 2017-02-16 This new edition of Crafting and Executing Strategy continues to provide a valuable resource for European readers while embracing new and updated core concepts and key theories in strategy Throughout the text you will find a range of examples that illustrate how strategy works in the real world and encourage the practical application of learning Complementing the chapters is a section of new cases providing in depth analysis of the challenges of strategic management at a range of companies. This edition includes a new 6Ds framework allowing readers to structure their approach to strategic management around the fundamental elements of the strategy process: Diagnosis, Direction, Decisions, and Delivery, and the context within which that process is managed: Dynamism and Disorder. Opening cases that begin each chapter and feature real life business scenarios from companies such as Tinder, Ikea, and Victorinox introducing strategic concepts and theories. Illustration Capsules which have been updated to illustrate contemporary business concerns and demonstrate how companies have reacted strategically, increasing understanding of successful strategies. Companies featured include Burberry, TOMS, Aldi, Novo Nordisk, and more. Key Debates that stimulate classroom discussion and encourage critical analysis. Emerging Themes that present contemporary strategic opportunities and issues such as ripple intelligence and technology and new organizational structures. A Different View encouraging readers to appreciate differing viewpoints on strategic concepts and theories. End of chapter cases that capture each chapter's main theories through engaging cases on companies such as Adidas and Nike, Lego, and Uber. New recommended reading at the end of each chapter which help to further knowledge including classic texts and advanced reading and author notes providing context. Connect is McGraw Hill Education's learning and teaching environment that improves student performance and outcomes while promoting engagement and comprehension of content. New for this edition are interview style videos featuring author Alex Janes in discussion with business leaders exploring how organizational strategy has developed within companies as diverse as Jeep, Levi Strauss, Novo Nordisk, and a prestigious oil and gas company. The videos are provided in full length or in segments with questions aimed at encouraging classroom discussion or self testing. This new edition is available with SmartBook, McGraw Hill Education's adaptive digital tool that tests students' knowledge of key concepts and pinpoints the topics on which they need to focus study time. Crafting and Executing Strategy is also available with both The Business Strategy Game and GLO BUS, the world-leading business strategy simulations.
