This book is about the life-style of every Christian

For, according to Henri Nouwen, every Christian is a minister—trying to live his life in the light of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. CREATIVE MINISTRY is a thoughtful examination of the various complex tasks that are part of that way of life.

Separate chapters treat each of the five areas that Nouwen considers the primary responsibilities of the priest and minister: teaching, preaching, counseling, organizing and celebrating. He shows how these main functions are inextricably tied to the minister's own spiritual life and why they must be directed toward a creative dialogue with other Christians if they are to be rewarding. It is essential, he maintains, that the minister leave himself open, take risks, and "lay down his life for his friends" in order to give new life. "There is today a great hunger for a new spirituality," observes Nouwen, "that is: a new experience of God in our own lives." Citing numerous examples from his own personal experience, the author offers practical advice for infusing daily pastoral work with a creative, meaningful spirituality.

The result is an insightful presentation and a spiritual guide for every man and woman who wants to be of service in the Church. And isn't that the goal of every Christian?
