Dimensions of Africa's International Relations Omari H. Kokole,1993 Africa and International Relations in the 21st Century S. Cornelissen,F. Cheru,T. Shaw,2011-10-18 This book examines key emergent trends related to aspects of power sovereignty conflict peace development and changing social dynamics in the African context It challenges conventional IR precepts of authority politics and society which have proven to be so inadequate in explaining African processes Rather this edited collection analyses the significance of many of the uncharted dimensions of Africa s international relations such as the respatialisation of African societies through migration and the impacts this process has had on state power the various ways in which both formal and informal authority and economies are practised and the dynamics and impacts of new transnational social movements on African politics Finally attention is paid to Africa s place in a shifting global order and the implications for African international relations of the emergence of new world powers and or alliances This edition includes a new preface by the editors which brings the findings of the book up to date and analyses the changes that are likely to impact upon global governance and human development in policy and practice in Africa and the wider world post 2015 African International Relations Mark W. DeLancey,2019-03-13 African International Relations is a thoroughly revised and updated bibliography that contains annotated entries for international books and journal articles in the field of African international relations The Ethnic Dimension in International Relations Bernard Schechterman,Martin Slann,1993-06-30 This book focuses on ethnic nationalism and its universality as a phenomenon in world politics By employing case studies the essays demonstrate the past current and future persistence of this fragmenting tendency and its implications for various regional and world wide political dynamics By its very comprehensiveness and geographic case diversity the study provides evidence that there are two simultaneous and sometimes contradictory dynamics taking place in the international political arena integration and fragmentation This collection of essays analyzes fragmentation There are significant implications for description analysis evaluation and prescriptive policy in international relations This book challenges the bias in post war America and the West overall that the preeminent if not exclusive political behavior tendency in regional and world politics is integration of actors and their behavior While not seeking to refute or deny integration it suggests balancing the analysis of international politics by upgrading the fragmentation tendencies based upon a very basic phenomenon ethnic nationalism United States - Africa Security Relations Kelechi A. Kalu,George Klay Kieh,2013-11-07 United States Africa relations have experienced four major cycles The first cycle was during the Cold War 1960 1990 During this period the U S developed a one sided relationship with various African states in which the latter served as foot soldiers for the U S in its competition with the Soviet Union for global domination Among other things the various client African states provided the U S with access to airfields deep water ports and sites for the establishment of various intelligence gathering facilities In addition the U S used various groups like UNITA led by Jonas Savimbi in Angola to undermine and fight

pro Soviet regimes on the continent The second cycle of the relationship covered the period 1991-1998 During this time the U S scaled down its security activities in Africa The major reason was that with the end of the Cold War Africa with few exceptions like Egypt was no longer a major front for the promotion of U S Security interests The third cycle commenced in 1998 and ended in 2001 This period was characterized by the U S search for an approach to frame its security relations with Africa In this vein the U S undertook various military security initiatives The fourth cycle began after the 9/11 terrorist attacks against the American homeland Since then the U S has expanded the scope of its security relations with Africa as reflected in the establishment of various initiatives and programs At the core is the prosecution of the American war on terror Against this backdrop this book examines some of the major dimensions of the U S security relations with Africa including American security interests on the continent the war on terror AFRICOM and military cooperation Using the book's integrative theoretical framework each of the chapters in the volume examines the various factors that shape the issue of focus

International Relations in Contemporary Africa Michael O. Anda, 2000 Although developing countries far outnumber fully industrialized states they are often neglected in the study of international relations especially with respect to the development of foreign policy theory International Relations in Contemporary Africa attempts to fill this void in the literature on comparative international relations while at the same time providing a detailed analysis of the economic development and integration of West African countries Michael Anda specifically focuses on the members of the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS and their policies which encourage coordination on issues ranging from science and technology to diplomacy and mutual defense Tracing the diplomatic history of West Africa from independence to the present he assesses the various dimensions of cooperation among the smaller and less developed states of West Africa while revealing the precarious nature of the economy and security in the region Both detailed and comprehensive International Relations in Contemporary Africa represents a significant contribution to African studies that appeal to those with an interest in the foreign policy of smaller states

Dimensions of African-Arab Relations, with Emphasis on the Post-Six Day War Period Victor T. Le Vine, 1977

Zimbabwe's Military: Examining its Veto Power in the Transition to Democracy, 2008-2013 Rupiya, Martin R., 2013-10-14 Political transition and democratisation challenges have been noted in African countries including Angola Burkina Faso Kenya Mali and the Democratic Republic of the Congo resulting in the African Union AU intervening on behalf of citizens using tried and tested mechanisms of imposing a power sharing agreement to preside over a transitional period during which there are key changes to the constitution and the political conduct of the incumbency and partisan institutions are weaned from seeking to perpetuate the status quo This book focuses on Zimbabwe's military and its perceived veto power in the transition to democratisation from 2008 until 2013 The objective was to analyse monitor and comment on the unique democratic transformational challenges faced by Zimbabwe's Government of National Unity One of the book's key findings is that every time partisan forces carry out an operation in the name of a political party there is a direct correlation in which the same loses its national character This is the context of the challenge facing Zimbabwean forces when used for partisan gain and why the Southern African Development Community SADC in its last communique in Maputo on 15 June 2013 sought to compel a written undertaking from the generals that they would desist from playing a direct role in the politics of the country The AU had earlier expressed its deep regret when faced with the results of serious human rights abuses that were committed with impunity

Subnational Foreign Relations in Africa Ohiocheoya Omiunu, Fritz Ikome Nganje, Ifeanyichukwu Azuka Aniyie, 2026-02-18 This book offers a pioneering comparative analysis of the international relations of subnational governments SNGs in two of Africa's most influential geopolitical actors South Africa and Nigeria Using an interdisciplinary approach that draws from political science international relations and legal studies the book examines the motivations instruments institutional mechanisms and challenges shaping the external engagements of SNGs in these leading African economies Through case studies the book provides critical insights into how constitutional institutional and historical contexts influence subnational international relations from an African perspective Drawing on these findings the book argues that paradiplomacy in Africa is best understood through the lens of developmental paradiplomacy where socio economic imperatives rather than political autonomy drive subnational international engagement It demonstrates how the need for practical cooperation and the pursuit of local and regional economic development has been central to sustaining the international involvement of African SNGs a strategy born out of necessity rather than an expression of political self determination This book will be an essential resource for scholars policymakers and practitioners seeking to understand the role of subnational actors in global governance and African development offering fresh perspectives on the evolving landscape of international relations in the Global South

China's Emerging Security Diplomacy in Africa Isaac Owusu Frimpong, 2025-04-26 This book presents a comprehensive analysis of China's evolving security engagement in Africa a dimension often overshadowed by earlier studies focusing on economic and political aspects As China's global ambitions expand its involvement in African security across bilateral regional and multilateral levels has intensified challenging its longstanding principle of non interference The book explores why China is shifting from a policy of non interference to one of non indifference and details the actions supporting this change Employing neoclassical realist theory it examines systemic factors domestic influences and the role of President Xi Jinping in shaping China's security strategy By adopting a three dimensional approach to Sino Africa relations and categorizing the reasons for China's policy shift into strategic culture superpower ambitions operational motives and reputational concerns the book offers fresh insights into China's security diplomacy It contributes to the broader discourse on China's changing stance and its implications for international relations highlighting the need for attention in both academic and policy circles

Dreams of Power K. van Walraven, 2019-01-04 Originally published in 1999 this book was the first study to provide a systematic reconstruction of the OAU's ideological ground work It is based on OAU documents a corpus of African perceptions of OAU functioning collected from governmental and non governmental newspapers and publications from more than thirty African countries and on interviews held with African diplomats and OAU officials It was also the first study to pay attention to the OAU s role in the political psychology of state elites which comes to the fore in the areas of OAU co operation discussed in this book the OAU s internal functioning the former struggle against apartheid and colonialism conflict management and the OAU s role in representing collective African viewpoints in global fora This study was originally a Ph D thesis which was considered to be among the best three dissertations in political science in The Netherlands in 1997

Routledge Handbook of African Politics Nic Cheeseman,2017-07-05 Providing a comprehensive and cutting edge examination of this important continent Routledge Handbook of African Politics surveys the key debates and controversies dealing with each of the major issues to be found in Africa s politics today Structured into 6 broad areas the handbook features over 30 contributions focused around The State Identity Conflict Democracy and Electoral Politics Political Economy Development International Relations Each chapter deals with a specific topic providing an overview of the main arguments and theories and explaining the empirical evidence that they are based on drawing on high profile cases such as the Democratic Republic of Congo Kenya Nigeria Somalia South Africa Rwanda and Zimbabwe The Handbook also contains new contributions on a wide range of topical issues including terrorism the growing influence of China civil war and transitional justice making it required reading for non specialists and experts alike Featuring both established scholars and emerging researchers this is a vital resource for all students of African Studies democratization conflict resolution and Third World politics

Peace and Conflict in Africa David Francis,2009-03-15 Nowhere in the world is the demand for peace more prominent and challenging than in Africa From state collapse and anarchy in Somalia to protracted wars and rampant corruption in the Congo from bloody civil wars and extreme poverty in Sierra Leone to humanitarian crisis and authoritarianism in Sudan the continent is the focus of growing political and media attention This book presents the first comprehensive overview of conflict and peace across the continent Bringing together a range of leading academics from Africa and beyond Peace and Conflict in Africa is an ideal introduction to key themes of conflict resolution peacebuilding security and development The book s stress on the importance of indigenous Africa approaches to creating peace makes it an innovative and exciting intervention in the field

International Relations in Contemporary Africa Michael O. Anda,2000 Although developing countries far outnumber fully industrialized states they are often neglected in the study of international relations especially with respect to the development of foreign policy theory International Relations in Contemporary Africa attempts to fill this void in the literature on comparative international relations while at the same time providing a detailed analysis of the economic development and integration of West African countries Michael Anda specifically focuses on the members of the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS and their policies which encourage coordination on issues ranging from science and technology to diplomacy and mutual defense Tracing the diplomatic history of West Africa from independence to the present he assesses the various dimensions of cooperation among the smaller and less developed states of West Africa while revealing the precarious nature of the economy and security in the region Both detailed and comprehensive International Relations in Contemporary Africa represents a significant contribution to African studies that appeal to those with an interest in the foreign policy of smaller states

From the Lagos Plan of Action to the New Partnership for Africa's Development Francis Nguendi Ikome, 2007 This study brings an intellectual but also an exciting dimension to Africa's development discourse in general and NEPAD in particular It is especially remarkable in analysing the origins of regionalist impulses in Africa It shows profound contrasts between the state led internally formulated and African financed Lagos Plan of Action LPA on the one hand and the market led Western crafted and externally funded NEPAD on the other Moreover it is distinctive in its comprehensive analysis of the failures of previous regional initiatives in Africa thus bringing new insights to the political economy of regionalism in Africa This book is analytical and critical but also thought provoking

Democratization in Sub-Saharan Africa Klaas van Walraven, Céline Thiriot, 2002 Religion, the Missing Dimension of Statecraft Douglas M. Johnston, Douglas Johnston, Cynthia Sampson, 1994 Sponsored by the Center for Strategic and International Studies this collection of wide ranging case studies and theoretical pieces shows how religious or spiritual factors can play a helpful role in international relations This important study is written by a distinguished roster of scholars with a foreword by Jimmy Carter Includes six maps

The Global African Omari H. Kokole, 1998 Anticipating the auspicious convergence of his 60th birthday and the 30th anniversary of his professorial debut Ali A Mazrui's students friends and colleagues seized the opportunity to critically assess the significance of the prodigious body of scholarship affectionately dubbed Mazruiana In November 1992 in Seattle Washington four panels devoted exclusively to Mazruiana were convened at the annual meetings of the African Studies Association with the added attraction of Mazrui's attendance at the convocation and his immediate personal response to the original papers presented there While no single volume could do justice to Mazrui's colossal literary output here at least is gathered the collective investigative insight of a team of well informed critics into select salient facets of this provocative but stimulating literary and intellectual phenomenon The long list of contributors to this Festschrift includes John W Harbeson Dunstan M Wai Darryl C Thomas Negussay Ayele Parviz Morewedge Hussein M Adam Alamin M Mazrui Claude E Welch Peter N Thuynsma Richard L Sklar Betty J Craige Molaria Ogundipe Leslie Chaly Sawere Bujor Avari Diana Frank Omari H Kokole and Ali A Mazrui himself
