

DIRECT BIBLE DISCOVERY

It would be interesting and probably surprising to know how Christians divide their time between studying books about what the Bible says rather than studying the Bible itself. Since the Reformation, the written Word of God has been made increasingly available to people in their own language. Many still have difficulty dealing with the Bible directly and continue to rely on the opinions of other people.

If you've been promising yourself that you are going to study the Bible for yourself, now is a good time. Direct Bible Discovery will be a welcome companion to help you see new possibilities for personal Bible study. You will find both know-how and motivation in these pages.

The real joy will come as you open your Bible and begin to apply the principles and procedures you've learned to your study of a Bible book or a topic of interest. Seeking the Lord "beyond the sacred page," you will not be disappointed.

RONALD W. LEIGH is associate professor of Christian education at Ft. Wayne Bible College, Ft. Wayne, Indiana. Dr. Leigh was educated at Moody Bible Institute, Wheaton College (A.B.; M.A.), and New York University (Ph.D.). He has served as a minister of Christian education and youth in churches in Colorado and New Jersey.
