Art-Centered Learning Across the Curriculum Julia Marshall,David M. Donahue,2015-04-28 This handbook provides teachers with a framework for implementing inquiry based substantive art integration across the curriculum along with the background knowledge and models needed to do this Drawing on ideas from Harvard Project Zero the authors make a clear and compelling argument for how contemporary art supports student learning The text features subject specific chapters co written by teaching scholars from that discipline Each chapter includes examples of contemporary art with explanations of how these works explore the fundamental concepts of the academic discipline The book concludes with a chapter on an integrated inquiry based curriculum inspired by contemporary art including guidelines for developing art projects teachers can adapt to their students interests and needs This resource is appropriate for art teachers as well as subject area teachers who are not familiar with using contemporary art in the classroom I am so excited about this book The visuals alone are enough to clue teachers in on ways that Contemporary Art can blow their curriculums open to become engaging relevant vehicles for their students to ride across the 21st century From the first scan readers cannot help but see the power of Contemporary Art in transforming classrooms and learning From the Foreword by Lois Hetland professor and chair of art education at Massachusetts College of Art and Design and co author of Studio Thinking 2 Art Centered Learning Across the Curriculum well surpasses its goal to demystify contemporary art for K 12 teachers In this important text the authors present a direct challenge to educators and public education reformers of all stripes to embrace the arts and design practices across disciplines as a potent means for building beautiful minds not merely as a tool for beautifying dingy school corridors This new book serves as a primer for fashioning the kinds of integrated curriculum frameworks required for success in today s global knowledge economy James Haywood Rolling Jr chair of art education and a dual professor in art education and teaching and leadership Syracuse University

The Art of Creative Writing Rodney Marshall, 2018-07-18 Most children at Key Stages 2 and 3 enjoy creative writing It allows them a freedom which other parts of the English curriculum do not It also offers them an opportunity to express their personalities and can even be a therapeutic process Unfortunately it tends to be the one area which many teachers struggle with As a pupil I was frequently provided with a title and then asked to write a narrative We were told to plan carefully and were provided with artificial techniques such as bolting on metaphors and similes every few lines or adding lots of adjectives This approach remains standard practice in many primary schools but it is lazy or misguided teaching which will only produce stories which do not ring true Professional writers research thoroughly before picking up a pen Students need to do the same This book guides teachers through the process exploring a range of topics from story starters through genre writing to how historical events and topical debates can be used as launching pads for story writing The guide also contains vocabulary banks and examples of pupils writing Following it will result in personal narratives which children of any ability can enjoy sharing in the classroom

Art of Creative Writing, 2025 English as a Creative Art Linden Peach, Angela Burton, 2018-10-24 English as a Creative Art is different from previous works on either creative writing or contemporary literary criticism It is the first book to bring the two together demonstrating how concepts drawn from literary theory can be used to enable students to develop critical insights into their own writing Conversely it also aims to help students understand contemporary critical concepts and become more incisive thinkers through creative work

Craft Consciousness and Artistic Practice in Creative Writing Ben Ristow, 2022-02-10 Craft lives inside the artist and it operates in the mind not in standards or techniques Creative writers navigate thresholds in consciousness as they develop their arts practice Craft Consciousness and Artistic Practice in Creative Writing explores what it is to be an artist as it traces radical feminist and culturally embedded traditions in craft The new term craft consciousness identifies the nexus from which writers explore making processes and practitioner knowledge Writers as with all artists create and reimagine themselves anew and it is in this perpetual state of becoming that they find ways to enlarge their sense of artistry through an exploration of forms processes and mediums beyond the written word For writers this book initiates a reexamination of the mission of creative writing through disrupting patriarchal racist colonialist ableist and capitalist associations with dominant craft Drawing from twenty five interviews with living artists outside of writing and in a host of fields from conceptual art to leatherwork and dance the book shines a light on how the processes associated with craft are embodied Craft is an internalized matrix it need not be commodified for the marketplace or codified in the standards necessitated by institutions of higher education By redesigning writing workshops and MFA PhD programs through craft consciousness new potentials and collaborations emerge and it becomes more conceivable to imagine dynamic inclusive relationships between writers scientists and other artists
