Art Performs Life Merce Cunningham, Walker Art Center, 1998 Artwork by Merce Cunningham Contributions by Thelma Golden Meredith Jones Laura Kuhn Site Dance Melanie Kloetzel, Carolyn Pavlik, 2013-03-27 In recent years site specific dance has grown in popularity In the wake of groundbreaking work by choreographers who left traditional performance spaces for other venues more and more performances are cropping up on skyscrapers in alleyways on trains on the decks of aircraft carriers and in a myriad of other unexpected locations worldwide In Site Dance the first anthology to examine site specific dance editors Melanie Kloetzel and Carolyn Pavlik explore the work that choreographers create for nontraditional performance spaces and the thinking behind their creative choices Combining interviews with and essays by some of the most prominent and influential practitioners of site dance they look at the challenges and rewards of embracing alternative spaces The close examinations of the work of artists like Meredith Monk Joanna Haigood Stephan Koplowitz Heidi Duckler Ann Carlson and Eiko Otake provide important insights into why choreographers leave the theatre to embrace the challenges of unconventional venues Site Dance also includes more than 80 photographs of site specific performances revealing how the arts and movement in particular can become part of and speak to our everyday lives Celebrating the often unexpected beauty and juxtapositions created by site dance the book is essential reading for anyone curious about the way that these choreographers are changing our experience of the world one step at a time Speaking of Dance Joyce Morgenroth, 2004 This book tells the story of how choreographers make their dances in their own words Includes interviews with 12 distinguished and innovative American choreographers and presents in depth conversations that focus on the art of dance African Americans in the Performing Arts Steven Otfinoski, 2010 Provides short biographies of African Americans who have contributed to the performing arts Democracy Moving Ariel Nereson, 2022-01-20 On the 200th anniversary of Abraham Lincoln s birth renowned choreographer and director Bill T Jones developed three tributes Serenade The Proposition 100 Migrations and Fondly Do We Hope Fervently Do We Pray These widely acclaimed dance works incorporated video and audio text from Lincoln s writings as they examined key moments in his life and his enduring legacy Democracy Moving explores how these works provided both an occasion and a method by which democracy and history might be reconceived through movement positioning dance as a form of both history and historiography The project addresses how different communities choose to commemorate historical figures events and places through art whether performance oratory song statuary or portraiture and in particular Black US American counter memorial practices that address histories of slavery Advancing the theory of oscillation as Black aesthetic praxis author Ariel Nereson celebrates Bill T Jones as a public intellectual whose practice has contributed to the project of understanding America s relationship to its troubled past The book features materials from Bill T Jones Arnie Zane Company s largely unexplored archive interviews with artists and photos that document this critical stage of Jones s career as it explores how aesthetics as ideas in action can imagine more
