

The Girl I Left Behind Me

Words 18 century
Music anon.

The words of this song can be traced back to the mid-18th century. Around 1759 there were many encampments along the south coast of England anticipating French invasion. The tune, which is anonymous, is sometimes known as Brighton Camp. It is still played by the British Army on occasions of departure.

Firmly, with movement

The musical score is presented in a piano-vocal format. It begins with a piano introduction in G major, 4/4 time, marked 'Firmly, with movement'. The introduction consists of five measures with the following chords: G, A, D, G, and A. The lyrics are: 'I, I'm lone-some since I crossed the hill, And o'er the moor and val-ley, Such hea-vy thoughts my heart do fill, Since part-ing with my Sal-by, I seek no more the fine or gay, For each does but re-mind me How'. The score includes a treble clef for the vocal line and a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) for the piano accompaniment. Chords are indicated above the notes. A large watermark is visible in the center of the page.
