Art Of Bill Viola:

The Art of Bill Viola Chris Townsend, Bill Viola, 2004-01-01 In a world where an artist's importance is often conferred by small groups of experts and cognoscenti Bill Viola's rich imagery touches a nerve with large international audiences His work never shies away from making big statements about human life and its relation to the universe to the soul and human spirit to nature and to death He is one of those rare artists whose work makes us aware of our nature as human beings taking art back to what were once its fundamental concerns and giving it a relevance to the emotional and spiritual lives of ordinary people

I Do Not Know what it is I Am Like John G. Hanhardt, Thomas A. Carlson, Kira Perov, Barnes Foundation, 2019 Bill Viola b 1951 is one of today's premier video installation artists whose apparently straightforward imagery belies a decades long investigation into the human imagination and its various states of consciousness This unique and accessible guide to Viola's work provides new insights into the artist's creative processes by drawing on his own writing as well as texts that have inspired his creative vision John G Hanhardt an expert on Bill Viola explores how the artist's work relates to literature philosophy poetry and mysticism Kira Perov Viola's wife artistic collaborator and the manager of his studio offers her own intimate insights into his work and studio production Beautifully illustrated this book imparts a fresh take on Viola's art originality and celebrated creativity Distributed for the Barnes Foundation Exhibition Schedule The Barnes Foundation Philadelphia 06 30 19 09 15 19

The Unspeakable Art of Bill Viola Ronald R. Bernier, 2014-05-19 The breach of art from religion is just one of the many unhappy legacies of modernism There was a time however when the aesthetic and the spiritual were of a piece This study of the work of American video artist Bill Viola considers the possible reemergence of a theological dimension to contemporary art a reenchantment of art as some have called it Using the high tech apparatus of modern video Viola's art is rooted precisely in this theological tradition of transcendent mystical experience and spiritual self concentration The technological apotheosis of modern image making high speed film high definition video LCD and plasma screens and sophisticated sound recording are put to use by Viola in ways that significantly challenge prevailing intellectual and artistic traditions and return us to the power of the Sublime that which by definition defeats language Viola's art as such converges with postmodern notions of the unrepresentable and with the ancient theological tradition of apophysis speaking away or unsaying The fullness of meaning then appears only as a promise of presence through embodied absence neither fully here and now nor entirely elsewhere and beyond This study seeks to define through the work of a courageous and thoughtful contemporary artist the theological sublime as an aesthetic of revelation

Bill Viola Bill Viola, 1994 Pour la première fois un musée accueille en Suisse un ensemble important des installations vidéo de l'artiste américain Bill Viola. Certes les bandes vidéo de Viola ont été présentées au public suisse de nombreuses reprises dans les années quatre-vingt notamment en 1985 Saint Gervais Genève dans un atelier dirigé par l'artiste lors de la première Semaine Internationale de Vidéo. Ces manifestations ont suscité un grand intérêt mais aucun musée n'avait jusqu'alors exposé les travaux tridimensionnels de l'artiste. Projects, Bill Viola Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.), 1979 Bill Viola / Michelangelo Martin Clayton, Kira Perov, 2019 At first glance there may appear to be more to separate Michelangelo 1475-1564 and Bill Viola b 1951 than to unite them: one the great master of the Italian Renaissance the other the creator of state-of-the-art immersive sound and video installations. And yet when Martin Clayton showed Viola's Her Majesty The Queen's unsurpassed collection of Michelangelo drawings at Windsor in 2006 the two men began to discover parallels. This book presents a new perspective on both artists' works. Stills and sequences from twelve key video pieces by Viola are reproduced alongside seventeen of Michelangelo's presentation drawings as well as the Taddei Tondo the only Michelangelo marble sculpture in the UK and a treasure of the Royal Academy's collection. Texts by Martin Clayton examine how existential concerns the preoccupation of many Renaissance artists not least Michelangelo are explored in Viola's often profoundly moving video installations while Kira Perov provides insight into Viola's working processes. Bill Viola, the Messenger Bill Viola, Albright-Knox Art Gallery, 1997 Bill Viola Bill Viola, David A. Ross, Lewis Hyde, 1997 Bill Viola b 1951 is widely acknowledged as the leading video artist on the international scene. His video installations total environments that envelop the viewer in image and sound employ sophisticated state-of-the-art technologies and are distinguished by their precision and direct simplicity. This catalogue has been published in conjunction with Bill Viola: the first major survey of the artist's work and the largest exhibition ever devoted to an individual video artist organized by the Whitney Museum of American Art and curated by David A. Ross and Peter Sellars. The book features a dynamic and visually rich selection of works from 1972 to 1996 in a presentation compiled by Kira Perov and Bill Viola with written descriptions by the artist and a conversation between Viola and poet scholar Lewis Hyde on the spiritual roots and cultural traditions underlying Viola's art. There is also an overview of the artist's achievement by David A. Ross, Whitney Museum director who has been involved with Viola's work since its beginning and as the first museum curator of video art has played a major role in the history and development of the
