Artful Crafts

Mark Stansbury-O'Donnell

Artful Crafts:

Artful Crafts Michael J. Vickers, David W. J. Gill, 1994 Exciting and provocative in its argument this book challenges the widely held view that Greek pottery vases were objects of great value in antiquity commissioned by rich patrons from the greatest artists of the day Instead they are shown to have been simply low cost versions of tableware originally made in silver and gold This book demonstrates how Greek pottery first came to be regarded as a high value commodity in the eighteenth century thanks to clever if not fraudulent sales techniques it examines the primary sources both literary and epigraphic to find what materials the ancients did consider to be important and it explores the ways in which work in gold and silver influenced painted pottery

Artful Crafts Michael J. Vickers, 1985 Greek Art and Aesthetics in the Fourth Century B.C. William A. P. Childs, 2018-04-10 Greek Art and Aesthetics in the Fourth Century B C analyzes the broad character of art produced during this period providing in depth analysis of and commentary on many of its most notable examples of sculpture and painting Taking into consideration developments in style and subject matter and elucidating political religious and intellectual context William A P Childs argues that Greek art in this era was a natural outgrowth of the high classical period and focused on developing the rudiments of individual expression that became the hallmark of the classical in the fifth century As Childs shows in many respects the art of this period corresponds with the philosophical inquiry by Plato and his contemporaries into the nature of art and speaks to the contemporaneous sense of insecurity and renewed religious devotion Delving into formal and iconographic developments in sculpture and painting Childs examines how the sensitive expressive quality of these works seamlessly links the classical and Hellenistic periods with no appreciable rupture in the continuous exploration of the human condition Another overarching theme concerns the nature of style as a concept of expression an issue that becomes more important given the increasingly multiple styles and functions of fourth century Greek art Childs also shows how the color and form of works suggested the unseen and revealed the profound character of individuals and the physical world

The Art of Contact S. Rebecca Martin, 2017-04-21 The proem to Herodotus s history of the Greek Persian wars relates the long standing conflict between Europe and Asia from the points of view of the Greeks chief antagonists the Persians and Phoenicians However humorous or fantastical these accounts may be their stories as voiced by a Greek reveal a great deal about the perceived differences between Greeks and others The conflict is framed in political not absolute terms correlative to historical events not in terms of innate qualities of the participants It is this perspective that informs the argument of The Art of Contact Comparative Approaches to Greek and Phoenician Art Becky Martin reconsiders works of art produced by or thought to be produced by Greeks and Phoenicians during the first millennium B C when they were in prolonged contact with one another Although primordial narratives that emphasize an essential quality of Greek and Phoenician identities have been critiqued for decades Martin contends that the study of ancient history has not yet effectively challenged the idea of the inevitability of the political and cultural triumph of Greece She aims to show how the methods used to study ancient history shape perceptions of it and argues that art is especially positioned to revise conventional accountings of the history of Greek Phoenician interaction Examining Athenian and Tyrian coins kouros statues and mosaics as well as the familiar Alexander Sarcophagus and the sculpture known as the Slipper Slapper Martin questions what constituted Greek and Phoenician art and by extension Greek and Phoenician identity Explicating the relationship between theory method and interpretation The Art of Contact destabilizes categories such as orientalism and Hellenism and offers fresh perspectives on Greek and Phoenician art history

Artful Crafts Or Crafty Arts? David Philip Roderick,1998 Knowledge Networks and Craft Traditions in the Ancient World Katharina Rebay-Salisbury,Ann Brysbaert,Lin Foxhall,2014-08-07 This edited volume investigates knowledge networks based on materials and associated technologies in Prehistoric Europe and the Classical Mediterranean It emphasises the significance of material objects to the construction maintenance and collapse of networks of various forms which are central to explanations of cultural contact and change Focusing on the materiality of objects and on the way in which materials are used adds a multidimensional quality to networks The properties functions and styles of different materials are intrinsically linked to the way in which knowledge flows and technologies are transmitted Transmission of technologies from one craft to another is one of the main drivers of innovation whilst sharing knowledge is enabled and limited by the extent of associated social networks in place Archaeological research has often been limited to studying objects made of one particular material in depth be it lithic materials ceramics textiles glass metal wood or others The knowledge flow and transfer between crafts that deal with different materials have often been overlooked This book takes a fresh approach to the reconstruction of knowledge networks by integrating two or more craft traditions in each of its chapters The authors well known experts and early career researchers provide concise case studies that cover a wide range of materials The scope of the book extends from networks of craft traditions to implications for society in a wider sense materials objects and the technologies used to make and distribute them are interwoven with social meaning People make objects but objects make people the materiality of objects shapes our understanding of the world and our place within it In this book objects are treated as clues to social networks of different sorts that can be contrasted and compared both spatially and diachronically

Looking at Greek Art Mark Stansbury-O'Donnell,2011 Looking at Greek Art by Mark D Stansbury O'Donnell offers a practical guide to the methods for approaching analyzing and contextualizing an unfamiliar piece of Greek art It demonstrates how objects are dated and assigned to an artist or region how to interpret the subject matter and narrative how to reconstruct the context for which an object was made distributed and used and how we can explore broader cultural perspectives by looking at questions of identity gender and relationships to surrounding cultures Each section focuses on different theoretical approaches providing an overview of the theories key terms and required evidence Case studies serve to demonstrate each process and some key issues to consider when using a given approach This book explores a variety of media including terracotta metalwork and jewelry in addition to works found in major museum collections in the United States and Europe The Annual Report of the Society of Arts & Crafts of Boston, Massachusetts, 1919

The Art of Toshiko Takaezu Peter Held, 2011-04-15 Tracing the artistic development of renowned potter Toshiko Takaezu 1922-2011 this masterful study celebrates and analyzes an artist who held a significant place in the post World War II craft movement in America Born in Hawaii of Japanese descent in 1922 Takaezu worked actively in clay fiber and bronze for over sixty years Influenced by midcentury modernism her work transformed from functional vessels to abstract sculptural forms and installations Over the years continued to draw on a combination of Eastern and Western techniques and aesthetics as well as her love of the natural world In particular Takaezu's vertical closed forms became a symbol of her work created through a combination of wheel throwing and hand building techniques that allowed her to grow her vessels vertically and eased the circular restrictions of the wheel In addition to her art Takaezu was renowned for her teaching including twenty years at Princeton University This beautifully illustrated book offers the first scholarly analysis of Takaezu's life work and includes essays by Paul Smith director emeritus of the American Craft Museum and Janet Koplos former senior editor of Art in America Jack Lenor Larsen a textile designer author collector and advocate of traditional and contemporary craftsmanship provides a foreword The Printing Art, 1923 The English Catalogue of Books ...
