Arthur Ashe Portrait In Motion:

Arthur Ashe Arthur Ashe, Frank Deford, 1976-03-01 Between Wimbledon 1973 and Wimbledon 1974 top tennis professional Arthur Ashe played center court on five continents made 129 airplane trips slept in 71 different beds and traveled 165 000 miles The dramatic diary he kept throughout that time on and off the court is the basis of this book of photographs Portrait in Motion Arthur Ashe, Frank Deford, 1975 Ball in My Hands David K. Wiggins, 2025-03-27 When David K Wiggins released his first anthology of previously published essays on race and sport in 1997 African American athletes were receiving more popular interest and scholarly attention The growth of sport history as an academic discipline combined with an increased interest in Black life and history had led to the publication of numerous biographies of African American athletes studies on Negro League Baseball and one survey text on the Black athletic experience to name a few Almost thirty years later Wiggins s second anthology is a comprehensive collection that examines the complex intersection of race sport and American culture discussing the experiences challenges and victories of Black athletes throughout the twentieth century Featuring eleven previously published essays Ball in My Hands Black Athletes Race and American Culture weaves storytelling and scholarly discussion together in its exploration of well known figures like Olympic decathlon champion Milt Campbell professional tennis icon Arthur Ashe Olympic sprinter Vince Matthews civil rights activist Harry Edwards basketball legend Kobe Bryant and more In his final essay Wiggins reflects on his experiences as a White scholar who has spent his forty year academic career analyzing and writing about experiences of African Americans in sport and the interconnection among race sport and American culture With an original introduction and a foreword from Damion L Thomas Museum Curator of Sports at the Smithsonian s National Museum of African American History and Culture Ball in My Hands is not simply a collection of biographies on individual athletes or write ups on athletic institutions rather it offers a wide ranging discussion of the history and meaning of African American sport that will engage not only scholars of African American history and sport history but educators sports enthusiasts and general readers alike Game, Set, and Match Herbert Warren Wind, 2016-01-26 The leading players and outstanding matches of two thrilling decades in tennis history From Rod Laver s amateur Grand Slam in 1962 to the first US Open held at the National Tennis Center in Flushing Meadows legendary sportswriter Herbert Warren Wind captures the grace and drama of modern tennis in this brilliant collection drawn from the pages of the New Yorker The era s biggest names including Margaret Court Chris Evert John Newcombe Arthur Ashe and Pancho Gonzales thrill the crowds of Roland Garros Wimbledon and Forest Hills and America s Davis Cup team battles patriotic linesmen and frenzied fans in an epic showdown against the Romanians in Bucharest In Mrs King versus Mr Riggs Wind paints a witty and evocative portrait of Billy Jean King s historic beatdown of Bobby Riggs and in Forest Hills and the Final Between Connors and Borg he vividly recounts one of the wildest and woolliest tournaments in the sport s history Rendered with the same authority and eloquence that led the New York Times to declare Wind the dean of

American golf writers these dispatches from center court testify to the celebrated journalist's passion and versatility

Southern Masculinity Craig Thompson Friend, 2010-01-25 The follow up to the critically acclaimed collection Southern Manhood Perspectives on Masculinity in the Old South Georgia 2004 Southern Masculinity explores the contours of southern male identity from Reconstruction to the present Twelve case studies document the changing definitions of southern masculine identity as understood in conjunction with identities based on race gender age sexuality and geography After the Civil War southern men crafted notions of manhood in opposition to northern ideals of masculinity and as counterpoint to southern womanhood At the same time manliness in the South as understood by individuals and within communities retained and transformed antebellum conceptions of honor and mastery This collection examines masculinity with respect to Reconstruction the New South racism southern womanhood the Sunbelt gay rights and the rise of the Christian Right Familiar figures such as Arthur Ashe are investigated from fresh angles while other essays plumb new areas such as the womanless wedding and Cherokee masculinity

Blacks at the Net Sundiata Djata, 2006-01-30 While much has been written about black triumphs in boxing baseball and other sports little has been said of similar accomplishments in tennis In this book the first is the first volume dedicated to that subject Sundiata Djata more than cites facts and figures he explores obstacles to such performance such as the discrimination that kept blacks out of pro tennis for decades He examines the role that this white sport traditionally played in the black community And he provides keen insights into the politics of professional sports and the challenges faced by today's black players Drawing on original and published interviews life writings and newspaper articles the author offers an in depth look at black participation in tennis from the first courts in Tuskegee in 1880 to players Reginald Weir and Gerald Norman Jr who challenged racism in the U S Lawn Tennis Association in the 1920s from Harlem teen Bob Ryland's historic match with two white women in 1944 to the achievements of acclaimed later stars like Althea Gibson Arthur Ashe Yannick Noah and Venus and Serena Williams Thoroughly researched and comprehensive in scope the work's eventual two volumes will cover identity and black tennis in aboriginal Australia North and South Africa the Caribbean and the Americas it is an ideal read for tennis players sports historians readers of black history and or black sports figures and all who are interested in the sport

Icons of Black America Matthew Whitaker, 2011-03-09 This stunning collection of essays illuminates the lives and legacies of the most famous and powerful individuals groups and institutions in African American history The three volume Icons of Black America Breaking Barriers and Crossing Boundaries is an exhaustive treatment of 100 African American people groups and organizations viewed from a variety of perspectives The alphabetically arranged entries illuminate the history of highly successful and influential individuals who have transcended mere celebrity to become representatives of their time It offers analysis and perspective on some of the most influential black people organizations and institutions in American history from the late 19th century to the present Each chapter is a detailed exploration of the life and legacy of an individual icon Through these portraits readers will discover how these icons have shaped and been shaped by the dynamism of American culture as well as the extent to which modern mass media and popular culture have contributed to the rise and sometimes fall of these powerful symbols of individual and group excellence

Forgotten African American Firsts Hans Ostrom, J. David Macey Jr., 2023-03-16
 Winner of the 2024 RUSA Outstanding Reference Award This book introduces students to African American innovators and their contributions to art entertainment sports politics religion business and popular culture While the achievements of such individuals as Barack Obama Toni Morrison and Thurgood Marshall are well known many accomplished African Americans have been largely forgotten or deliberately erased from the historical record in America This volume introduces students to those African Americans whose successes in entertainment business sports politics and other fields remain poorly understood Dr Charles Drew whose pioneering research on blood transfusions saved thousands of lives during World War II Mae Jemison an engineer who in 1992 became the first African American woman to travel in outer space and Ethel Waters the first African American to star in her own television show are among those chronicled in Forgotten African American Firsts With nearly 150 entries across 17 categories this book has been carefully curated to showcase the inspiring stories of African Americans whose hard work courage and talent have led the course of history in the United States and around the world
