

Assessing English Language Learners

Assessments

- The diagnostic evaluation is employed to collect the student's data to determine what the student is capable of doing and comprehending. The instructor will be able to plot out the curriculum with a visual designer's help or by conducting a pre-test (Stenger, 2015).
- Formative evaluation is performed at various points in the teaching and education process. This evaluation offers a variety of chances, not only for the instructor but also for the student. At any point, formative evaluations may be carried out (Feriazzo & Hull Sypniewski, 2012).
- The final evaluation of the pupils' educational progress is the summative assessment. The summative evaluation may occur once per week, twice per week, once per month, etcetera.
