The Gold and the Blue, Volume One Clark

Kerr, 2001-10-16 One of the last century's most influential figures in higher education Clark Kerr was a leading visionary architect leader and fighter for the University of California Chancellor of the Berkeley campus from 1952 to 1958 and president of the university from 1958 to 1967 Kerr saw the university through its golden years a time of both great advancement and great conflict This absorbing memoir is an intriguing insider's account of how the University of California rose to the peak of scientific and scholarly stature and how under Kerr's unique leadership the university evolved into the institution it is today In this first of two volumes Kerr describes the private life of the university from his first visit to Berkeley as a graduate student at Stanford in 1932 to his dismissal under Governor Ronald Reagan in 1967 Early in his tenure as a professor the Loyalty Oath issue erupted and the university particularly the Berkeley campus underwent its most difficult upheaval until the onset of the Free Speech Movement in 1964 Kerr discusses many pivotal developments including the impact of the GI Bill and the evolution of the much emulated 1960 California Master Plan for Higher Education He also discusses the movement for universal access to education and describes the establishment and growth of each of the nine campuses and the forces and visions that shaped their distinctive identities Kerr's perspective of more than fifty years puts him in a unique position to assess which of the academic structural and student life innovations of the 1950s and 1960s have proven successful and to consider what lessons about higher education we might learn from that period The second volume of the memoir will treat the public life of the university and the political context that conditioned its environment The Labor Board Crew Ronald W. Schatz, 2021-01-11 Ronald W Schatz tells the story of the team of young economists and lawyers recruited to the National War Labor Board to resolve union management conflicts during the Second World War The crew including Clark Kerr John Dunlop Jean McKelvey and Marvin Miller exerted broad influence on the U S economy and society for the next forty years They handled thousands of grievances and strikes They founded academic industrial relations programs When the 1960s student movement erupted universities appointed them as top administrators charged with quelling the conflicts In the 1970s they developed systems that advanced public sector unionization and revolutionized employment conditions in Major League Baseball Schatz argues that the Labor Board vets who saw themselves as disinterested technocrats were in truth utopian reformers aiming to transform the world Beginning in the 1970s stagflation era they faced unforeseen opposition and the cooperative relationships they had fostered withered Yet their protégé George Shultz used mediation techniques learned from his mentors to assist in the integration of Southern public schools institute affirmative action in industry and conduct Cold War negotiations with Mikhail Gorbachev The Essential Mario Savio

Robert Cohen, 2014-09 The Free Speech Movement in Berkeley California was pivotal in shaping 1960s America Led by Mario Savio and other young veterans of the civil rights movement student activists organized what was to that point the most tumultuous student rebellion in American history Mass sit ins a nonviolent blockade around a police car occupations of the campus administration building and a student strike united thousands of students to champion the right of students to free speech and unrestricted political advocacy on campus This compendium of influential speeches and previously unknown writings offers insight into and perspective on the disruptive yet nonviolent civil disobedience tactics used by Savio The Essential Mario Savio is the perfect introduction to an American icon and to one of the most important social movements of the post war period in the United States The U.S. Government and the Vietnam War: Executive and Legislative Roles and Relationships, Part III William Conrad Gibbons,2014-07-14 Part III which begins in January 1965 and ends in January 1967 treats the watershed period of U S involvement in the war from President Johnson s decision to bomb North Vietnam and to send U S ground forces into South Vietnam through the buildup of military forces and political cadres required by the new U S role in the war This volume examines Johnson s policymaking his interaction with military advisors and with Congressional critics such as Mike Mansfield and his reactions as protests against the war began to grow Originally published in 1989 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Great Events from History: 1956-1996 Frank Northen Magill,1997 Confrontation, Conflict, and Dissent Albert Jay Miller,1972 A Bibliographic Guide to American Colleges and Universities Mark Beach,1975-09-02 Survey of Social Science Frank Northen Magill,1994 V 1 A Culture and language v 2 Culture and technology Homelessness v 3 Horticultural economic systems The police v 4 Political action committees and special interest groups Social stratification analysis and overview v 5 Social stratification functionalist perspectives Z NATO and Germany Stanford M.
