Crying For Freedom:

Cry Freedom Delrose Bramwell, Milton Woolley, 2011-07 If you only enjoy roses are red violets are blue and sugar sweet poetry this is no book for you Cry Freedom is a down to earth volume that quivers with the harshness of reality and the cynicism and social injustices of modern life Uppermost among those elements suffering from social economic and legal wrongs is the plight of the black man and other minorities That is the subject which is of concern to the authors They are mortified by their lack of human rights the chains that have bound them and have caused psychological aberrations by the prejudice that has stultified their opportunities in a white man s society Their concern can be seen in many of the poem titles such as Of What Was I Robbed Vision of Freedom Skin Deep Don t Bring Back Slavery My Coat and Let My People Go Africa is Dying and I sms There is a timeliness a pressing urgency to these stark creations Each one of these poems is a step in the direction of understanding maturity and liberation They are carefully wrought and will stand as a beacon of truth and hope for all minorities and underprivileged as well as for all thinking Americans who believe in fair play justice and the fight to liberty and the pursuit of happiness

INTERIOR freedom rests upon the principle of non resistance to all the things which seem evil or painful to our natural love of self But non resistance alone can accomplish nothing good unless behind it there is a strong love for righteousness and truth By refusing to resist the ill will of others or the stress of circumstances for the sake of greater usefulness and a clearer point of view we deepen our conviction of righteousness as the fundamental law of life and broaden our horizon so as to appreciate varying and opposite points of view The only non resistance that brings this power is the kind which yields mere personal and selfish considerations for the sake of principles Selfish and weak yielding must always do harm Unselfish yielding on the other hand strengthens the will and increases strength of purpose as the petty obstacles of mere self love are removed Concentration alone cannot long remain wholesome for it needs the light of growing self knowledge to prevent its becoming self centred Yielding alone is of no avail for in itself it has no constructive power But if we try to look at ourselves as we really are we shall find great strength in yielding where only our small and private interests are concerned and concentrating upon living the broad principles of righteousness which must directly or indirectly affect all those with whom we come into contact
