Crystal Chain Letters:

The Crystal Chain Letters Iain Boyd Whyte, Bruno Taut, 1985-01 The Crystal Chain Die gläserne Kette was a utopian correspondence initiated by Bruno Taut in 1919-1920 in which a small group of like-minded architects and artists exchanged ideas on what form the architecture of the future should take. Unfettered by the demands of practicability, the members of the group described their visions of an ideal society and of a beneficent architecture in a series of dazzling, fantastic letters and drawings. Although the letters are referred to in almost every survey of twentieth-century architecture, this is the first book to offer in English the complete texts of all the known Crystal Chain letters, including some which have never been published in German. The letters are accompanied by illustrations, an introductory essay, and explanatory notes. The Crystal Chain letters document the crisis of modernism that afflicted German architectural theory in the years immediately following the First World War. The trauma of the war and the subsequent social unrest led the radical architects to reject the materialism and positivism that had characterized the Kaiserreich. The result was an ideological and aesthetic vacuum, and the search for suitable alternatives provided the basis for the correspondence. After a year of intense theoretical speculation, several of the links in the chain, including Bruno and Max Taut, Walter Gropius, Hans and Wassili Luckhardt, and Hans Scharoun, emerged as leading advocates and practitioners of the new architecture in Germany. Iain Boyd Whyte is an English architectural historian. He is the author of several books, including Bruno Taut and the Architecture of Activism and the translator of Industriekultur by Peter Behrens and the AEG. MIT Press, 1984.

The Crystal Chain Letters Bruno Taut, 1985 Utopia David Ayers, Benedikt Hjärtarson, Tomi Huttunen, Harri Veivo, 2015-12-14 Utopian hope and dystopian despair are characteristic features of modernism and the avant-garde. Readings of the avant-garde have frequently sought to identify utopian moments coded in its works and activities as optimistic signs of a possible future social life or as the attempt to preserve hope against the closure of an emergent dystopian present. The fourth volume of the EAM series European Avant-Garde and Modernism Studies casts light on the history, theory, and actuality of the utopian and dystopian strands which run through European modernism and the avant-garde from the late 19th to the 21st century. The book's varied and carefully selected contributions, written by experts from around 20 countries, seek to answer such questions as: how have modernism and the avant-garde responded to historical circumstance in mapping the form of possible futures for humanity; how have avant-garde and modernist works presented ideals of living as alternatives to the present; how have avant-gardists acted with or against the state to remodel human life or to resist the instrumental reduction of life by administration and industrialisation.

Architecture after God Kyle Dugdale, 2022-12-19 Architecture after God A vivid retelling of the biblical story of Babel leads from the contested site of Babylon to the soaring towers of the modern metropolis and sets the bright hopes of early modernism against the shadows of gathering war. Dealing in structural metaphor, utopian aspiration, and geopolitical ambition, Dugdale exposes the inexorable architectural implications of the event described by Nietzsche as the death of God.
