The Reformation

The Reformation was a major religious movement in the 16th century that led to the creation of Protestant churches. It began in 1517 when Martin Luther posted his 95 Theses on the door of the Castle Church in Wittenberg, Germany. Luther criticized the Catholic Church's practices, such as the sale of indulgences, and argued for a simpler faith based on the Bible. Other reformers, like John Calvin and Ulrich Zwingli, also challenged Catholic teachings and practices. The Reformation led to the establishment of new churches and the end of the Catholic Church's monopoly on Christianity in Europe.

- Martin Luther's 95 Theses
- John Calvin's Geneva
- Ulrich Zwingli's Zurich
- The Protestant Reformation
- The Catholic Reformation
- The English Reformation

The Reformation had a profound impact on European society, leading to the rise of individualism and the decline of the Catholic Church's power. It also led to the development of new religious and political ideas, such as the concept of the nation-state. The Reformation was a key event in the history of the world, shaping the course of European civilization and the development of modern society.
