Dale Chihuly Installations 1964-1992:

The Art of Dale Chihuly Dale Chihuly, 2008-06-11 Dale Chihuly is the most famous and influential artist working in glass today. A career spanning biographical essay by curator Timothy Anglin Burgard and stunning colour photography of the works will captivate Chihuly's myriad fans both old and new.

Dale Chihuly Dale Chihuly, Patterson Sims, 1992
Installations 1964-1992 addresses more than twenty-five years of Dale Chihuly's career from his earliest weaving with glass to a design in progress for the Seattle Opera. Each profiled installation is accompanied by a brief entry which highlights the history, purpose, and intent behind that project. This volume is especially important for readers interested in public art, architecture, and interior design.

Dale Chihuly: A Celebration, 2011-06-01 Dale Chihuly, the hugely popular artist who works in glass, celebrates his 70th birthday in 2011. Tacoma Art Museum in his hometown owns more than 150 examples of his work and is mounting an exhibition in his honor. Both this book and the exhibition showcase Chihuly's enduring interest in the arts and natural beauty of the Pacific Northwest, which are a major influence on his work. For the first time, Dale Chihuly: A Celebration focuses on the importance of these influences. From Native American baskets to wool trade blankets, the gritty Tacoma of the 1960s and Puget Sound, this exhibition and book follow Chihuly's development and accomplishments and how he grew and evolved while maintaining close ties to Tacoma. The essay by curator Rock Hushka traces Chihuly's creative process and the ways in which his abiding interest in the American Northwest enriches his work.

Praise for Dale Chihuly: A Celebration
This intimate, thoughtful celebration highlights the influences of nature and nurture on a unique talent.

Dale Chihuly Dale Chihuly, Patterson Sims, 1992-12-01 Unconventional as always, Dale Chihuly's career survey at the Seattle Art Museum, Dale Chihuly Installations 1964-1992, was not a retrospective. Rather than simply gathering individual works to trace the artist's development, Chihuly was invited to create a series of gallery-sized installations. The intent was to explore the relationship of object to space that has intrigued Chihuly since his undergraduate days as an interior design student at the University of Washington. Likewise, Dale Chihuly Installations 1964-1992 is not a conventional exhibition catalog. In curator Patterson Sims's essay, Scuola di Chihuly Venezia and Seattle, he chronicles the artist's life and discusses the various series as well as the permanent and temporary installations that Chihuly has created since 1964. Like the exhibition, Sims examines everything from the earliest environmental works, hangings combining fiber and glass that Chihuly had done in his undergraduate weaving class, to the stage sets for the Seattle Opera's 1993 production of Pelleas et Mellande. This book, with its informative commentary on the stages of the artist's development and its archival photographs, is an essential part of the Chihuly bibliography.

Chihuly Over Venice Dale Chihuly, 1996 Bound like an artist's sketchbook, this book documents the culmination of this amazing artistic odyssey that took the artist from his Seattle

Boathouse hot shop to Nuutajarvi Finland Waterford Ireland Monterrey Mexico and finally Venice to blow glass In the factories in those locations Chihuly and his team of American glass blowers worked with native artisans more accustomed to making functional objects than art Together they created the 14 chandeliers that graced the campos and canals of Venice for a remarkable time in September 1996 In her essay Dana Self curator of the Kemper Museum of Contemporary Art and Design muses on the relationship of Chihuly s glass and The Spectacle of Beauty She concludes that Chihuly s fantastical explorations demonstrate that beauty does produce a meaningful experience of the world Writer William Warmus chronicles the culmination of this two year project with his diary entries Full colour photographs record for readers the installations as they were assembled An extensive chronology traces the artist s career Cincinnati Magazine ,1993-01 Cincinnati Magazine taps into the DNA of the city exploring shopping dining living and culture and giving readers a ringside seat on the issues shaping the region Chihuly Jerusalem 2000 Dale Chihuly,2000 Chihuly s love of extremes can be seen in his Jerusalem Wall of Ice made from sixty four tons of Alaskan ice The water from the melting ice was used to irrigate the surrounding land Chihuly Dale Chihuly,Donald Burton Kuspit,Kathryn Kanjo,1997 As Marcel Duchamp said the creation of art restlessly oscillates between two poles the artist and the spectator writes Donald Kuspit in his insightful essay Chihuly and Stroemple A Meeting of Imaginations He suggests that the collector is the ideal spectator For Dale Chihuly George R Stroemple may be the ultimate ideal spectator as he possesses more works by Chihuly than any other collector concentrating on three series only the Irish Cylinders Macchia Venetians and Drawings In 1997 the Portland Art Museum presented 350 works selected from this collection In the catalogue accompanying the exhibition Kuspit explores the relationship of artist and collector noting that this exhibition is not only about Dale Chihuly s glass art but also about George R Stroemple s enthusiastic if selective collecting of it Curator Kathryn Kanjo addresses the creation of these three distinctly different series in her incisive essay Chihuly Glass Without Limits Statements by the collector and his curator Tracy Savage who had run Chihuly s Seattle studio at the time of Stroemple s first purchases in 1990 offer intimate insights to this relationship of collector and artist The Origins of Creativity Bruce Adolphe,2001 The exploration of creativity used to be confined to the domains of psychology and philosophy This has changed greatly in recent years with the dramatic advances of modern neuroscience and our greatly improved understanding of higher brain function This book examines the biology of the brain and creativity not only through psychology and philosophy but also with the input of art science and neurobiology for the first time bringing the discoveries of modern neurobiology to bear on the subject of creativity It addresses four themes central to our understanding of creativity the creative experience in art and science the mind s perception of patterns the biological basis of imagination and the influence of the environment of creative powers In this fascinating and inter disciplinary collection of essays painters and composers explore the creative processes in their arts a mathematician points out that computer generated fractal images are often perceived as art and evoke emotional reactions and modern neuroscience begins to explain the creator's experience and sees creative decision making as a function that is inseparable from emotion. Not only are these essays fascinating within themselves but they interact and collide in such a way that suddenly mathematics is bringing forth art and science becomes an argument for unexplainable emotions. Many questions and theories are explored in these pages: What is the Eureka experience? how do the brain and mind make creative decisions and what is the role of emotion? In the end The Origins of Creativity will explore with you the possibility of creativity being a genetically encoded product of the evolution of the brain favored by natural selection but influenced by the environment of each individual as it unifies traditional views on creativity with today's new sciences of the mind.

Chihuly Alla Macchia Dale Chihuly, Robert Carleton Hobbs, Art Museum of Southeast Texas, Laguna Gloria Art Museum, 1993 Dale Chihuly's obsession with color and his insatiable desire to experiment inspired his Macchia Italian for spot or stain series. Chihuly alla Macchia traces its development from the first small, oddly shaped, grotesquely coloured vessels dubbed the uglies by Chihuly's forthright mother when they began in 1981 to the recent flamboyant and exuberantly hued Macchia. This book reproduces in full colour the 39 glass works and 15 drawings included in the 1993 exhibition of the George R. Stroemple collection. The book is not however merely an exhibition catalogue. Through the extensive use of close-up details it offers the reader a chance to experience the glasswork in an intimate manner. The book also includes the essay Reflections on Macchia by Robert Hobbs as well as an exhibition checklist and a chronology.

Chihuly Donald B. Kuspit, 1998 First edition originally published in 1997 second edition originally published in 1998 by Portland Press Seattle

Chihuly at the V&A Dale Chihuly, Victoria and Albert Museum, 2001 Drawing on the museum's historic Renaissance collections and expertise the book also explores the development of the Venetian glass workshop and Chihuly's enormous influence in introducing it and Venetian glassmakers to the United States. It also includes a brief resume of his career and an assessment of his art and its significance.
