(Revised and Abridged by the Author.) John Creasey,1965 A Dramatic Version of Greek Myths and Hero Tales Fanny Comstock,1912 In the Shadow of Race Victoria Hattam,2007-09-15 Race in the United States has long been associated with heredity and inequality while ethnicity has been linked to language and culture In the Shadow of Race recovers the history of this entrenched distinction and the divisive politics it engenders Victoria Hattam locates the origins of ethnicity in the New York Zionist movement of the early 1900s In a major revision of widely held assumptions she argues that Jewish activists identified as ethnics not as a means of assimilating and becoming white but rather as a way of defending immigrant difference as distinct from race rooted in culture rather than body and blood Eventually Hattam shows the Immigration and Naturalization Service and the Census Bureau institutionalized this distinction by classifying Latinos as an ethnic group and not a race But immigration and the resulting population shifts of the last half century have created a political opening for reimagining the relationship between immigration and race How to do so is the question at hand In the Shadow of Race concludes by examining the recent New York and Los Angeles elections and the 2006 immigrant rallies across the country to assess the possibilities of forging a more robust alliance between immigrants and African Americans Such an alliance is needed Hattam argues to more effectively redress the persistent inequalities in American life The Brown Fairy Book Andrew Lang,2025-02-17 The Brown Fairy Book by Andrew Lang is a captivating collection of fairy tales from around the world dedicated to Diana Scott Lang This book isn t just a simple compilation of stories it s a carefully curated selection designed to entertain and engage young readers with a diverse array of narratives Lang emphasizes that while the tales come from various cultures and peoples from the Red Indians to the Australian aborigines from the Kaffirs of Africa to the Persians they share a common thread appealing to the universal love that children have for stories whether they attend school or live in the wild The book is a mix of translated works and tales retold by Mrs Lang who adapted them to suit white readers by skipping parts that might not be enjoyable Travel Magazine ,1909 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science, Art, and Finance ,1904 The Huia ,1903
