This book shows how South African writing can help us to understand change after apartheid. It aims to shift the attention of literary criticism away from a narrow set of highbrow South African authors and towards a wider range of texts including popular fiction. The object of analysis at its largest level is the South African polity as it veered between the hopeful optimism of the Rainbow nation under Nelson Mandela, the murderous muddling of Thabo Mbeki and the captured state under Jacob Zuma. Questions of a political, economic and sociological cast are central with changes in the workplace, land reform, indigenous knowledge, xenophobia, corruption and crime providing specific points of focus. Writing Politics and Change in South Africa after Apartheid shows how creative literature of the post-apartheid period has a unique and powerful capacity to illuminate these issues and to intervene in our understanding of them.
