A Business Guide To Changes In European Data Protection Legislation:

A Business Guide to Changes in European Data Protection Legislation Cullen International, 2003-12-18 European businesses from the smallest family company to the largest multinational corporation will soon find themselves impacted by new European Community Data Protection legislation Business managers lawyers and others involved in data protection must ready themselves to deal with the coming changes Directive 95 46 EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 24 October 1995 concerns the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data and the free movement of such data with the intent to harmonise the differing data protection regimes operating in the Member States of the European Union If your organisation handles personal information it is essential that you understand the requirements of the Directive now so that you can make arrangements to comply A Business Guide to Changes in European Data Protection Legislation will help you greatly in complying with the legal requirements The work is written in plain English cutting through complicated terminology in a way that will appeal to business managers as well as to lawyers and data protection specialists It provides article by article analysis of the General Directive 95 46 EC and the sector specific Telecommunications Directive 97 66 EC along with an overview of EU and EEA institutions and political processes a glossary of terms and other key fundamental reference materials Because the European Community Data Protection legislation is the first regional legislation of its kind in the world specialists around the globe will find this guide compelling and important Purchasers of this Guide may also order a Hypertext Electronic version on CD ROM This provides a simple and rapid way to retrieve the information you need European Data Privacy Law and Online Business Christopher Kuner, 2003 EU data protection law is of great practical relevance for any company doing business in today's global information economy This book provides a detailed and practical exposition of European data protection law in the context of the issues that arise in electronic commerce and data processing It analyses the relevant EU legislation and case law and makes particular reference to the EU Data Protection Directives as well as to the national regulatory systems in Europe and the US Numerous examples are taken from practice and advice is given on how the relevant data protection laws apply to and impact upon business in Europe the US and worldwide Beginning with a detailed description of the legislative process the book goes on to discuss the basic legal concepts underlying data protection law It then focuses on how to determine whether EU law applies to particular electronic commerce and online activities and how to transfer personal data outside Europe so as to comply with EU law The book also includes a comprehensive analysis of how to deal with complex compliance challenges including notification of databases processing of employee data privacy policies and website compliance and standardization The key legislative texts needed to deal with complex data protection issues are included in the appendices along with forms and precedents contact information for data protection authorities and links to useful websites The book is fully up to date with the amendments to the Telecommunications Data Protection Directive passed in the summer of 2002 The Right to Erasure in Eu Data

Protection Law Postdoctoral Researcher Jef Ausloos, 2020-04-27 The right to erasure or right to be forgotten has become a major flashpoint in the courts and public opinion of the potential and limits of data protection law to empower individuals to control their data This is the first book to focus on the right to erasure in the context of Article 17 of the GDPR its theory history and legal scope

European Community Law for the New Economy Lucas Bergkamp, 2003 The European Community EC has embarked on an ambitious legislative program for the new economy In European Community Law for the New Economy professor Lucas Bergkamp analyzes the EC s current and proposed new economy legislation The new economy according to Bergkamp is not only the internet the information society and biotechnology but also a different kind of old economy a different kind of corporate governance and a different kind of government Accordingly in addition to the EC e commerce data protection and biotechnology legislation this book discusses also the grand principles of EC policy making such as sustainable development and the precautionary principle the theory of corporate social responsibility and EC government reform With its wide ranging insightful and engaging analyses and devoid of obliquity EC Law for the New Economy is a unique publication This book must be read by everybody who wants to gain a deeper understanding of the effects of EC legislation the root causes of regulatory failures and possible solutions to these problems It is of interest to lawyers politicians policy makers government officials political scientists advanced students and autodidacts Lucas Bergkamp is a lawyer at the Brussels Bar and Professor of International Liability Law Erasmus University Rotterdam The Netherlands

Trust in Electronic Commerce: The Role of Trust from a Legal, an Organizational, and a Technical Point of View J. E. J. Prins, P. M. A. Ribbers, Henk C. A. Van Tilborg, 2002-07-03 Electronic commerce is here to stay No matter how big the dot com crisis was or how far the e entrepreneurs shares fell in the market the fact remains that there is still confidence in electronic trading At least it would appear that investors are confident in e companies again However not only trust of venture capitalists is of importance consumers also have to have faith in on line business After all without consumers there is no e business Interacting lawyers technicians and economists are needed to create a trustworthy electronic commerce environment To achieve this environment thorough and inter disciplinary research is required and that is exactly what this book is about Researchers of the project Enabling Electronic Commerce from the Dutch universities of Tilburg and Eindhoven have chosen a number of e topics to elaborate on trust from their point of view This volume makes clear that the various disciplines can and will play a role in developing conditions for trust and thus contribute to a successful electronic market

The Privacy Papers Rebecca Herold, 2001-12-20 Today more than ever organizations have to cope with increased concerns regarding privacy issues These concerns are not limited to consumer fears about how information collected by Web sites will be used or misused They also involve broader issues including data collected for direct response marketing privacy of financial and health records
