Odysseys Home George Elliott Clarke, 2002-12-15 Odysseys Home Mapping African Canadian Literature is a pioneering study of African Canadian literary creativity laying the groundwork for future scholarly work in the field. Based on extensive excavations of archives and texts, this challenging passage through twelve essays presents a history of the literature and examines its debt to and synthesis with oral cultures. George Elliott Clarke identifies African Canadian literature's distinguishing characteristics, argues for its relevance to both African Diasporic Black and Canadian Studies, and critiques several of its key creators and texts. Scholarly and sophisticated, the survey cites and interprets the works of several major African Canadian writers including Andr Alexis Dionne, Brand Austin Clarke, Claire Harris, and M Nourbese Philip. In so doing, Clarke demonstrates that African Canadian writers and critics explore the tensions that exist between notions of universalism and black nationalism, liberalism, and conservatism. These tensions are revealed in the literature in what Clarke argues to be paradoxically uniquely Canadian and proudly apart from a mainstream national identity. Clarke has unearthed vital but previously unconsidered authors and charted the relationship between African Canadian literature and that of Africa, America, and the Caribbean. In addition to the essays, Clarke has assembled a seminal and expansive bibliography of texts, literature, and criticism from both English and French Canada. This important resource will inevitably challenge and change future academic consideration of African Canadian literature and its place in the international literary map of the African Diaspora.

Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, 2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories. The Candywine Development John Morris, 1971 The Relationship Between Individual and Family in the Caribbean Novel khurshid attar, 2014-07-31 The book studies the relationship between Individual and Family on the broader sense which is explored in the 19 Caribbean novels, divided into four decades: 1950s to 1980s, which contributes valuably to the comprehension of the Caribbean phenomenon of identity. In the Caribbean context, West Indian context, the struggle for identity is in essence a struggle for meaningful relatedness or the sameness with others as human beings within a society compelled by history into racial and cultural hybridization on the one hand and the social, economic, and political stratification on the other. The book focuses on the psychological and sociological Caribbean context, which is different from the usual context of understanding. It studies 19 Caribbean novels of 12 writers: George Lamming, V S Naipaul, Samuel Selvon, Edgar Mittelholtzer, Roger Mais, Wilson Harris, Jean Rhys, Michael Anthony, Merle Hodge, John Hearne, Jamaica Kincaid, and Merle Collins. The novels of these writers explore the uniqueness of the Caribbean society, which is the microcosm of the world.
