Goethe-Wörterbuch Rita James Simon, Rhonda M. Roorda, 2007 Rita J Simon and Rhonda M Roorda s In Their Own Voices Transracial Adoptees Tell Their Stories shared the experiences of twenty four black and biracial children who had been adopted into white families The book has since become a standard resource for families and practitioners Now in this sequel we hear from the parents of these remarkable families and learn what it was like for them to raise children across racial and cultural lines Simon and Roorda s candid interviews shed light on the issues these parents encountered while raising their children and reveal whether they received adequate preparation and training from social work professionals and adoption agencies The authors explore what role race played during thirty plus years of parenting what lessons these parents learned about themselves and whether they would recommend transracial adoption to others Combining trenchant historical and political data with absorbing firsthand narratives Simon and Roorda once more bring a unique scholarly and human dimension to the literature on transracial adoption

Children's Magazine Guide , 2008 Fall or Fly Wendy Welch, 2018-01-08 Chaos Frustration

Compassion Desperation Hope These are the five words that author Wendy Welch says best summarize the state of foster care in the coalfields of Appalachia Her assessment is based on interviews with more than sixty social workers parents and children who have gone through the system The riveting stories in Fall or Fly tell what foster care is like from the inside out In depictions of foster care and adoption stories tend to cluster at the dark or light ends of the spectrum rather than telling the day to day successes and failures of families working to create themselves Who raises other people s children Why What s money got to do with it when the love on offer feels so real And how does the particular setting of Appalachia itself so frequently oversimplified or stereotyped influence the way these questions play out In Fall or Fly Welch invites people bound by a code of silence to open up and to share their experiences Less inspiration than a call to caring awareness this pioneering work of storytelling journalism explores how love compassion money and fear intermingle in what can only be described as a marketplace for our nation s greatest asset
