Building Community:

Building Community Linda Beilharz, 2002 This ground breaking book documents a radically different and very successful approach to community capacity building that builds on the strengths inherent in the community rather than focusing on its perceived deficits In the Shared Action project the people of the community were approached as the experts in their lives and it is they who defined the goals and drove the activities This book rigorously captures well referenced research every step of this challenging journey and the voices of all stakeholders Project Summaries of the Center for Building Technology Center for Building Technology, 1975 Community Building: What Makes It Work Paul W Mattessich., Wilder Research Center, 1997-06-15 This practical guide shows you what really does and doesn't contribute to community building success It reveals 28 keys to help you build community more effectively and efficiently You won't find another single report that pulls out common lessons from across community building initiatives about what works You can use this report to find out what community characteristics contribute to successful community building make sure key processes such as communications and technical assistance are in place determine if community leaders or organizers have essential qualities such as a relationship of trust and flexibility and evaluate the likely success of a proposed project or get a struggling effort back on track Examples definitions and a detailed bibliography make this report even more valuable Wilder Research Center scoured the literature contacted resource centers and spoke with community development experts across the country The result is concrete understandable research based on real life experiences The 28 factors in this report are grouped by 1 characteristics of the community 2 characteristics of the community building process and 3 characteristics of community building organizers Detailed descriptions and case examples of how each factor plays out are followed by practical questions you can use to assess your work In addition to the factors you also get working definitions for community community building and many other terms a list of resources and contacts in the field an explanation of how the research was done and a complete bibliography of all the studies used in this report Now you can save time looking for best practice information With this concise report you've got the tools to help your community building work succeed Practicing Care in Rural Congregations and Communities Jeanne Hoeft, L. Shannon Jung, Joretta Marshall, 2013-07-01 Pastoral care in rural communities is different from care in other locales Despite these differences rural churches and communities also hold a particular wisdom from which the rest of the church might benefit Small towns and rural areas have particular challenges and in seeking to live out the Christian life in the midst of those local churches have unique and useful insights into what it means to care for one another The Financing of Social Work Arthur Procter, Arthur A. Schuck, 1926 Building Powerful Community Organizations Michael Jacoby Brown, 2006 Using stories and exercises from grassroots organizing experience this book walks you through the steps of starting a new group or strengthening an old one to build a better world Back cover Program Development and Grant Writing in Occupational Therapy Joy Doll, 2010-10-22 A practical guide to program development and grant writing this text describes the process of developing a good idea into a sustainable and meaningful program related to occupational therapy principles and client needs
