Building Trust Robert C. Solomon,Fernando Flores,2003-05 In Building Trust Robert C Solomon and Fernando Flores offer compelling answers to these questions They argue that trust is not something that simply exists from the beginning something we can assume or take for granted that it is not a static quality or some semi mystical atmosphere or social glue Instead they assert that trust is an emotional skill an active and dynamic part of our lives that we build and sustain with our promises and commitments our emotions and integrity In looking closely at the effects of mistrust from insidious office politics that can sabotage a company s efficiency to national politics rife with cynicism to marriages that must be protected by prenuptial agreement Solomon and Flores demonstrate how to move from naive trust that is easily shattered to an authentic trust that is sophisticated reflective and possible to renew As the global economy makes us more and more reliant on strangers and as our political and personal relationships become more
