Discerning Vocations to Marriage, Celibacy and Singlehood Francis Kelly Nemeck, Marie Theresa Coombs, 2001-10-17 From a relational and evolutionary perspective on the mystery of vocation the authors develop the principles of discernment for Christian marriage celibacy and singlehood They see the vocational core of marriage as a calling by God of each spouse to be a unique instrument of transformation and purification in the other s spiritual journey They identify the vocational core of celibacy as the relationship between Jesus and the celibate rendering the celibate unmarriageable for the sake of Christ and the Gospel They view the vocational core of singlehood as witness to a certain independence for the sake of the reign of God In the light of each vocational core the authors discuss specific signs which indicate and authentic calling This book appeals to those seeking to discern their personal vocation as well as to those guiding them Celibate Loving Mary Anne Huddleston, 1984

A Celibate Way of Loving Gabriel M. Harty, 2005

Observations on Priestly celibacy No quote Review for Religious Celibate?! Patrice Dillard and Steven Wilson, 2019-11-12 This self help book is about an engaged couple practicing celibacy until the words I Do are shared This book discusses the ups and downs of a fun sexy disciplined relationship and the outcomes of two partners who have coexisted in each other s dream world without having sex The authors share their secrets tips ideas and perspectives of the celibacy journey This book was written to inspire to educate and to share the perspective of love in its rawest form and the true meaning of stimulating the other partner s mind and inner soul Challenge of Authenticity Jacob Kofi Hevi, 2003-01-25

Authenticity the external self in conformity with the inner self to be sincere to oneself is a state of genteel well being and therefore of true happiness It is the state of being whole and in a sense of experiencing holiness It is the ideal of being a Christian in any cultural context a challenge to all Christians everywhere The response to the Word of God demands the readiness to be at its service But this service is not simply allowing oneself to be an instrument but also of actively being the agent putting the word into action in the world This means creatively activating the Spirit of God the Spirit of the Word within the culture in the world in individuals and in peoples at any time and place It means the challenge to break through the limiting structures of body and mind in order to get to people s hearts whatever may be their stations in life These structures may differ from place to place and from time to time because every time or place has its peculiar challenges For the Christian faith the challenge is to activate the best within the indigenous culture of its practitioners parishioners and sympathisers The point of departure is that the best elements of a typical indigenous African culture are openness sincerity of spirit spontaneity in a word authenticity These are far different from the superficial emotionalism which some uninformed scholars and commentators have made these out to be The reflections in the book suggest how the challenges to faith commitment in general and in African socio cultural context in particular could be converted into opportunities to make faith commitment a truly self fulfilling vocation that will in turn create authentic discipleship
