

Celtic commoners, ca. A.D. 100

By the second century, the Celts were firmly entrenched in Britain and Ireland. These two farmers are representative of the common folk. Both wear belted tunics. In addition, the man on the left has a short plaid scarf thrown over his shoulders; the man on the right wears his scarf like a cape, held together by a sunflower-motif fibula. He wears a hood and wool leggings held in place by soft leather straps.
