A mandala of cards : the Buddha tarot ,2007-01-01 The Buddha Tarot Companion Robert Place,2004 The twenty two sequential cards of the Tarot s Major Arcana are often seen in larger terms as a depiction of the archetypal Hero s Journey The journey from the naivete of the Fool card to the universal consciousness of the World card is in many ways a path similar to Prince Siddhartha s journey to enlightenment In this companion guide to The Buddha Tarot artist and writer Robert M Place who drew parallels between Christianity and the Tarot in the Tarot of the Saints now applies his unique vision to connect the Eastern and Western spiritual experience This book examines the history and development of Tarot from its roots in the Middle Ages to its myriad modern incarnations The author also delves deeply into Western mysticism and philosophy showing how Platonic and Neoplatonic thought influenced centuries of Western magic and mysticism He then examines Buddhism from a Westerner s point of view including a description of the Buddha s life and an in depth look at the themes represented in traditional Tarot and their parallels in Buddhist teachings The Buddha Tarot Companion also includes a detailed description of each card and its symbolism and how each card in this unique deck relates to the Tarot tradition

The Buddha in the Tarot Paul Greer,2017-02-19 On the surface the worlds of Buddhism and Tarot appear very different The Tarot conjures up images of fortune telling and divination or for the more seriously minded Hermeticism Neo Platonism and other aspects of the Western Mystery Tradition By contrast Buddhism brings to mind a world of meditation Eastern mysticism and compassionate ethical action in the world Yet the bridge between both is the story of the Buddha s journey towards enlightenment which mirrors in many surprising ways the archetypal Fool s Journey through Tarot s Major Arcana The aim of this book is to provide a series of Buddhist reflections on the Fool s Journey reflections which allow us to approach and appreciate Tarot symbolism in a new and refreshing way Conversely the Tarot images themselves provide us with an opportunity for relating Buddhism s unique worldview to Western art and mythology and for presenting Buddhist ideas in a way that may engage the Western mind
