Empire of Emptiness Patricia Ann Berger, 2003-01-01 It examines some of the Buddhist underpinning of the Qing view of rulership and shows just how central images were in the carefully reasoned rhetoric the court directed toward its Buddhist allies in inner Asia The multi lingual culturally fluid Qing emperors put an extraordinary range of visual styles into practice Chinese Tibetan Nepalese and even the European Baroque brought to the court by Jesuit artists

Function and Meaning in Buddhist Art, 2023-08-07 What was the function of Buddhist art at the time Buddhism was a major religion in large areas of South East and South East Asia Can we establish what these sculptures and paintings meant to Buddhist believers living at a time when this art fulfilled important religious needs These questions are discussed not answered in a volume about Function and Meaning of Buddhist Art which contains the papers of a workshop on this theme held at Leiden University in 1991 While dealing with a variety of themes and subject matter sometimes in great detail sixteen specialists focus on ritual and semantic aspects of Buddhist works of art from countries such as India China Japan Tibet Thailand and Indonesia Recent non western art historical publications show an increasing tendency to work with methodological frameworks developed by specialists on western art Moreover there are more similarities between Buddhist and other religious art than literally meet the eye For this reason two comparative studies are included in which parallels and universals are brought forward Two main lines emerge in the results offered in this book the one indicating a tendency to focus on intended meanings the other concentrating on more than one level of reception of Buddhist art in a liturgical context

Buddhist Art in Its Relationship to Buddhist Ideals Masaharu Anesaki, 1915 Buddhist Visual Cultures, Rhetoric, and Narrative in Late Burmese Wall Paintings Alexandra Green, 2018-01-04 Step into a Burmese temple built between the late seventeenth and early nineteenth centuries and you are surrounded by a riot of color and imagery The majority of the highly detailed wall paintings displays Buddhist biographical narratives inspiring the devotees to follow the Buddha s teachings Alexandra Green goes one step further to consider the temples and their contents as a whole arguing that the wall paintings mediate the relationship between the architecture and the main Buddha statues in the temples This forges a unified space for the devotees to interact with the Buddha and his community with the aim of transforming the devotees current and future lives These temples were a cohesively articulated and represented Burmese Buddhist world to which the devotees belonged Green s visits to more than 160 sites with identifiable subject matter form the basis of this richly illustrated volume which draws upon art historical anthropological and religious studies methodologies to analyze the wall paintings and elucidate the contemporary religious political and social concepts that drove the creation of this lively art form Buddhist Visual Cultures Rhetoric and Narrative in Late Burmese Wall Paintings is truly a tour de force that allows us to see Burmese temple paintings of the Life of the Buddha and similar themes as an open ended genre that like literary discourse participates in wider social intellectual and religious contexts Juliane Schober Arizona State University Alexandra Green introduces this relatively unknown material and subjects it to sophisticated analysis This study is major step towards creating a template that could be used for analyzing other late traditions of Buddhist painting Janice Leoshko University of Texas at Austin

Early Buddhist Art of China and Central Asia Marilyn M. Rhie,1999 Volume two of Marilyn Rhie s widely acclaimed and formative multi volume work presents a comprehensive scholarly and detailed study of the Buddhist art of China and Central Asia from 316 439 A D during the formative early periods of Buddhism in the Eastern Chin and Sixteen Kingdoms Period Using texts translated from the Chinese together with stylistic and technical analyses the chronology and sources of the art are more clearly defined than in previous studies for the regions of South and North China other than Kansu and the important sites of Tumshuk Kucha and Karashahr on the Northern Silk Route in eastern Central Asia Furthermore by incorporating extensive religious and historical materials this work not only contributes to clarifying the regional characteristics of the art but also offers new insights into the broader interregional relationships of this politically fragmented period
