Matthew B. Pandel, 2016-11-01 For too long the study of Cults and the Occult has been relegated to the shadows of Christian theology. Viewing the subject matter as dark and sinister, it has been largely ignored by the contemporary church, which has proven more interested in the latest congregational growth trend than genuinely saving and shaping the culture. While the body of Christ has slept, these counterfeit movements have risen to places of prominence to such a degree that the average person is not even aware of the danger they pose. In this revealing book, the major Cult and Occult groups are examined from a fresh, honest biblical perspective that has one central goal in mind: confronting darkness with light. Rather than scrutinize those aberrations from the traditionalist approach of academic scholarship, which has been done time and again, Truth Wins will empower you to take your rightful position as a child of God in the earth, actively destroying the counterfeits one lie at a time. Every time a lie encounters the truth, TRUTH WINS.
