Latin American Cultural Studies: A Reader Jens Andermann, Ben Bollig, Lorraine Leu, Daniel Mosquera, Rory O'Bryen, David Wood, 2018-10-03 Featuring twenty five key essays from the Journal of Latin American Cultural Studies Travesia this book surveys the most influential themes and concepts as well as scouring some of the polemics and controversies which have marked the field over the last quarter of a century since the Journal's foundation in 1992 Emerging at a moment of crisis of revolutionary narratives and at the onset of neoliberal economics and emergent narcopolitics the cultural studies impetus in Latin America was part of an attempted intellectual reconstruction of the centre left in terms of civil society and the articulation of social movements and agencies thinking beyond the verticalist constructions from previous decades This collection maps these developments from the now classical discussions of the cultural turn to more recent responses to the challenges of biopolitics affect theory posthegemony and ecocriticism It also addresses novel political constellations including resurgent national popular or eco nativist and indigenous agencies Framed by a critical introduction from the editors this volume is both a celebration of influential essays published over twenty five years of the Journal and a representative overview of the field in its multiple ramifications entrenchments and exchanges

Ethnographies of Science Education Carol Brandt, Heidi B Carlone, 2015-09-25 Researchers who conduct ethnography in science education tend to have a deep commitment for transforming science to improve the lives of people in underserved communities This edited volume explores how contemporary ethnographers in science education bring to light the local production of scientific knowledge and the ways it is implicated in larger social and political struggles Ethnographies in science education contribute to understanding the experiences of linguistically racially and economically diverse populations who have been historically excluded from participation in science An anthropological approach has also been instrumental in explicating the situated practices by which students enact science in the classroom and in their lives beyond schools This edited volume brings together ethnographers in science education to contribute a global perspective on science teaching and learning in school and university classrooms at home and after school programs Included are examples of ethnography in science education from the UK Argentina Canada and the USA in which contributors point to promising directions for theorizing the culture of science education as we undertake educational reform The authors in this volume argue that ethnography is not only a valid approach for the study of science education but also they contend that it is essential to the development of more equitable practices for instruction and learning This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnography and Education

Caribbean and Latinx Street Art in Miami Jana Evans Braziel,2024-02-29 This study focuses on street art and large scale murals in metropolitan Miami Dade County while also foregrounding the diasporic and aesthetic interventions made by migrant and second generation artists whose families hail from the Caribbean and Latin America Jana Evans Braziel argues that Caribbean and Latinx street artists define and visually mark the city of Miami as a diasporic transnational urban space These artists also help define Miami as a cosmopolitan city yet one that is also a distinctly Caribbean and Latinx urban space and simultaneously resist but also at times reluctantly participate in the forces of gentrification and urban re development particularly through the myriad and complex ways in which street art contributes to city branding and art tourism The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history urban studies American studies and Latin American Caribbean studies

Interdisciplinary Behavior and Social Sciences Ford Lumban Gaol,2015-02-27 The human aspect plays an important role in the social sciences The behavior of people has become a vital area of focus in the social sciences as well Interdisciplinary Behavior and Social Sciences contains papers that were originally presented at the 3rd International Congress on Interdisciplinary Behavior and Social Science 2014 ICIBSoS 2014 New Perspectives on Dystopian Fiction in Literature and Other Media Saija Isomaa,Jyrki Korpua,Jouni Teittinen,2020-08-27 This collection of essays examines various forms of dystopian fiction in literature television and digital games It frames the timely trend of dystopian fiction as a thematic field that accommodates several genres from societal dystopia to apocalyptic narratives and climate fiction many of them examining the hazards of science and technology to human societies and the ecosystem These are genres of the Anthropocene par excellence capturing the dilemmas of the human condition in the current increasingly precarious epoch The essays offer new interpretations of classical and contemporary works including the canonised prose of Orwell Atwood and Cormac McCarthy modern pop culture classics like Battlestar Galactica Fallout and Hunger Games and the work of Johanna Sinisalo a pioneer of Finnish speculative fiction From Thomas Pynchon to Watership Down the volume s multifaceted approach offers fresh perspectives to those already familiar with existing research but it is no less accessible for newcomers to the ever expanding field of dystopian studies Filtered Emma Felton,2018-12-07 Caf culture is flourishing in cities across the world From London to Seoul Melbourne to Shanghai and many cities in between people are flocking to caf s A recent phenomenon caf culture has made its reappearance only since the end of the 20th century What is the appeal of the caf for urban dwellers And why now Having a coffee might be a daily ritual yet it is more than coffee that draws us to the caf

Caf s are vital social spaces technically connected workspaces and businesses that are forging design and food trends The caf is the lens through which this book explores major changes occurring in everyday life in cities across the world Urban regeneration has fuelled the growth of urban amenity and social consumer spaces The impact of technology social and workplace transformation and the ascendancy of the design and food industries all find expression in the spaces of the cafe The specialty coffee movement is a thriving global presence uniting caf staff and customers across geographical borders with a shared commitment to the connoisseurship of coffee In the book s global sweep it examines the development of caf culture in China Japan and Australia as significant and interesting departures from traditional European caf culture Australia is a world leader and successful exporter of its unique style of coffee and food Interviews with caf patrons and staff illuminate why the caf has become a meaningful place for many people in the 21st century city
