Culture In The Contemporary Prc:

Culture in the Contemporary PRC Michel Hockx, Julia Strauss, 2005-12-26 The culture of the People's Republic of China offers a unique blend of the popular, the political and the avant garde. In no other country in the world are cultural products subjected to such strict censorship and at the same time consumed by such large numbers of people. This volume presents essays by scholars at the cutting edge of Chinese cultural studies dealing with subjects ranging from advertising to poetry, from rock music to revolutionary museums, providing an authoritative and multi-faceted analysis of some of the world's most complex cultural phenomena. Special Issue: Culture in the Contemporary PRC Michel Hockx, 2005

Cultural Security in Contemporary China and Mongolia Jarmila Ptáčková, Ondrej Klimes, 2025-10-01 Cultural Security in Contemporary China and Mongolia applies the term cultural security not exclusively to state or institution implemented processes but also considers the indigenous bottom up and inside out mechanisms of establishing and maintaining communal cultural security of an ethnic group. Markers of cultural identity differ according to an inside and outside perspective and can be re-defined according to inner or outer circumstances. Importance of these markers increases when a community feels endangered in their cultural existence or diminishes when perceived cultural identity is not questioned. The dynamics shaping cultural security are illustrated in examples of ethnic communities in the People's Republic of China and in Mongolia. China's Literary and Cultural Scenes at the Turn of the 21st Century Jie Lu, 2013-10-18 China's literary and cultural production at the turn of the twenty first century is marked by heterogeneity, plurality and diversity. Given its complexity, the literary cultural production of this period perhaps can be understood most productively as a response to a global modernity that has touched and transformed all aspects of contemporary Chinese reality. The eleven essays in this book offer an introduction to some of the most important works published at the turn of the twenty first century. In combining textual analysis of specific works with theoretical insights and in locating the texts in their sociocultural and socioeconomic contexts, the essays explore key theoretical issues and intellectual concerns of the time. They collectively draw a broad contour of new developments, major trends and radical changes, capturing the intellectual and cultural Zeitgeist of the age. All in all, these essays offer new theoretical approaches to and critical perspectives on contemporary Chinese literature and culture. Deconstructing Contemporary Chinese Art Paul Gladston, 2015-08-21 The book presents a range of articles and discussions that offer critical insights into the development of contemporary Chinese art both within China and internationally. It brings together selected writings, both published and unpublished, by Paul Gladston, one of the foremost international scholars on contemporary Chinese art. The articles are based on extensive first hand research, much of which was carried out during an extended residence in China between 2005 and 2010. In contrast to many other writers on contemporary Chinese art, Gladston analyses his subject with specific reference to the concerns of critical theory. In his writings, he consistently argues for a polylogic, multi-voiced approach to research and analysis grounded in painstaking
