Current Issues in Swedish Arbitration Lars Heuman,1990-01-01 Current Issues in Swedish Arbitration Lars Heuman,1990 International Arbitration in Sweden Annette Magnusson,Jakob Ragnwaldh,Martin Wallin,2021-03-09

Sweden is one of a handful of countries where the international arbitral process has reached a stage where the jurisprudence is replete with instances involving no local parties at all In this context of credible neutrality the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce SCC has emerged as a leading global arbitral institution Whether the matter at issue is a business transaction dispute or a politicized conflict involving obdurate parties the richness of its body of decided cases manifests the SCC s authority and reliability throughout the converging world of international arbitration The present book written by sixteen eminent practitioners and now in its second edition provides a practical guide to international arbitration in Sweden whether ad hoc or institutional Among the many elements of practice and procedure detailed are the following appointment challenge removal and compensation of arbitrators procedural efficiency and costs use of international legal sources such as IBA guidelines choice of law by parties SCC rules and procedures multiparty arbitrations joinder intervention consolidation investment treaty arbitration confidentiality documentary evidence witnesses and experts grounds for setting aside party succession Swedish court review of the arbitrator s jurisdiction and appeal of arbitrators compensation In addition readers will be exposed to a trove of pertinent references to important decisions that have in recent decades been generated by the stream of major international arbitrations conducted in Sweden Disputing parties wishing to know what will happen when their case is brought to Sweden for arbitration will find no clearer or more thorough guide This book is an incomparable source for anyone called upon to act as arbitrator or counsel or in any other capacity in international arbitration in Sweden

Arbitration Law of Sweden Lars Heuman,2003-02-01 This book is a practical and scholarly work on the new Swedish Arbitration Act of 1999 It deals with international arbitration and enforcement of foreign arbitral awards in Sweden Arbitration Law of Sweden is based on a comprehensive analysis of earlier Swedish court practice that is still relevant Issues are investigated from both the arbitrator s and the counsel s perspectives and important tactical issues are discussed The book is indispensable for arbitrators and party representatives who are engaged in Swedish arbitrations

Civil Procedure in Sweden Bengt Lindell,2020-11-20 Derived from the renowned multi volume International Encyclopaedia of Laws this convenient volume provides analysis of the legislation and rules that determine civil procedure and practice in Sweden Lawyers who handle transnational matters will appreciate the book s clear explanation of distinct terminology and application of rules The structure follows the classical chapters of a handbook on civil procedure beginning with the judicial organization of the courts jurisdiction issues a discussion of the various actions and claims and then moving to a review of the proceedings as such These general chapters are followed by a discussion of the incidents during proceedings the legal aid and legal costs and the regulation of evidence There are chapters on seizure for security and enforcement of judgments and a final section on alternative dispute resolution Facts are presented in such a way that readers who are unfamiliar with specific terms and concepts in varying contexts will fully grasp their meaning and significance Succinct scholarly and practical this book will prove a valuable time saving tool for business and legal professionals alike Lawyers representing parties with interests in Sweden will welcome this very useful guide and academics and researchers will appreciate its comparative value as a contribution to the study of civil procedure in the international context SCC (Stockholm Chamber of Commerce) Arbitral Awards, 2004-2009 Linn Bergman, Stephen Bond, 2011 The SCC Arbitral Awards contains the text of all the international arbitral awards from the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce between 2004 and 2009 This is the only source for SCC Arbitral Awards The awards are subject to commentary by leading authorities including distinguished arbitrators lawyers justices and other legal professionals Where necessary commentary has been revised and updated prior to publication The extracts from the arbitral awards provide indispensable and extremely helpful insights into the attitudes of tribunals on arbitration matters and arbitral awards worldwide This publication is essential for the practitioner and the legal professional who needs to be up to date on key arbitration issues involving SCC arbitration in particular but also international arbitration in general as well International Commercial Contracts Giuditta Cordero-Moss, 2014-05-29 Any practising lawyer and student working with international commercial contracts faces standardised contracts and international arbitration as mechanisms for dispute settlement Transnational rules may be applicable but national law is still important Based on extensive practical experience this book analyses international contract practice and its interaction with the various applicable sources which role is played by the contractual regulation which by national law which by transnational sources what is the interaction among these factors and how does this all apply to contracts that refer disputes to international arbitration Conflicting Legal Cultures in Commercial Arbitration: Old Issues and New Trends Stefan N. Frommel, 1999-09-22 The great strength of the arbitration process lies in its independence from any particular legal culture Inevitably its cross cultural perspective has brought it to the fore as the preferred means of resolving international commercial disputes The Institute of Advanced Legal Studies in London has done more than any other group to promote and sustain the development of international arbitration and to define the law and practice that has grown up around it In a series of remarkable public lectures held during its jubilee year the Institute reasserted its preeminent and creative role in the field of alternative dispute resolution at the international level These lectures form the basis of the insightful papers assembled in this book The nine authors bring a truly international perspective to their work Their combined experience has involved them in arbitration in many countries in Europe Asia North America and South America several of them have in addition had various posts in international diplomacy and in major international organisations They include Dr Christian Borris on the civil law versus common law in arbitration culture Professor Andreas F Lowenfeld on the mix that creates the international arbitration process Dr Serge Lazareff on the search
