Christians in an Age of Wealth Craig L. Blomberg, 2013-11-26 What does the Bible say about money, material possessions, and stewardship? In Christians in an Age of Wealth Craig Blomberg addresses tough questions about the place and purpose of wealth and material possessions in a Christian's life. He points to the goodness of wealth as God originally designed it but also surveys the Bible's many warnings against making an idol out of money. Taking a close exegetical look at this topic as it's discussed in Scripture Blomberg answers the toughest questions about Christianity and wealth. Is there any one key to keeping possessions in their proper God-intended perspective? Are there limits on how rich we should become or on how poor we should allow others to get? What does a truly Christian economic system look like? How does the Bible's teaching on wealth fit into the gospel? Blomberg expounds upon how the sharing of goods and possessions is the key safeguard against both greed and covetousness. He expands on the concept of giving generously, even sacrificially, to those who are needier, demonstrating how Christians can participate in God's original good design for abundance and demonstrate the world-altering gospel of Christ.

Part of the Biblical Theology for Life series, this practical and challenging book will help you and your church ground your worldly possessions on the solid foundation of biblical understanding and reflection.
