

— THE BEATITUDES —

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.

Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth.

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be filled.

Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy.

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God.

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.

Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Life in Tension Stephen W. Hiemstra,2020-11-12 When God comes into our lives we change Our new identity in Christ comes into tension with our old identity in ourselves as the Holy Spirit works in our hearts and minds This tension arises between who we were and who God created us to be between us and God and between us and those around us The Apostle Paul calls the work of the Holy Spirit in our lives sanctification Life in Tension reflects on Jesus Beatitudes in the context of scripture The Beatitudes serve as an introduction to the Sermon on the Mount and lay out Jesus priorities in teaching his disciples Because the sermon serves as a kind of ordination service for the Apostles the importance of the Beatitudes for the early church Christian spirituality and discipleship today cannot be overstated Life in Tension is organized as a devotional Each chapter offers a reflection a prayer and discussion questions Chapters are organized around the nine Beatitudes in Matthew This revised edition facilitates ease of reading It has an updated cover fewer Greek and Hebrew references and fewer footnotes than the original edition Some editing to enhance clarity has also been done Hear the words Walk the steps Experience the joy Key words for this book include Beatitudes Christianity spirituality Jesus Bible devotion faith prayer spiritual growth discipling Christian spirituality devotional sanctification and faith Author Stephen W Hiemstra MDiv PhD is a slave of Christ husband father tentmaker writer and speaker He lives with Maryam his wife of 30 years in Centreville VA and they have three grown children

Life in Tension Stephen W. Hiemstra,2016-09-01 When we become a Christian the Holy Spirit comes into our lives The spirit of holiness becomes part of us and we begin the journey of faith To be holy means to be set apart to be sacred We take on a new identity in Christ The invitation to be holy is an invitation to approach God and bear His image more clearly The Apostle Paul calls this process sanctification Rom 6 19 As Christ s church the called out ones our sanctification process is a group activity If we lived alone on a mountain top then our process of sanctification would be easier because we could simply choose to be obedient and follow Christ daily But our mountain top experiences are necessarily short We mostly live in the world where lifestyles differ Success in sanctification creates a gap between ourselves and other people because biblical and worldly values differ Our own sin inattention and other shortcomings likewise create gaps between us and God and between us and ourselves in Christ We can identify three related gaps The first gap is the gap between who we were and the person that God created us to be The second gap is between us and those around us sin separates us even from those closest to us The third gap is between us and God In exploring the question of life in tension I reflect on the Beatitudes in Matthew s Gospel The Beatitudes serve as an introduction to Jesus Sermon on the Mount and in doing so lay out Jesus priorities in teaching his disciples Because the sermon serves as a kind of ordination service for the Apostles the importance of the Beatitudes for the early church Christian spirituality and discipleship cannot be overstated The core chapters in this text follow divide into three parts tension with ourselves tension with God and tension with others In my reflections I have written four sections for each Beatitude focusing on understanding what Jesus said the Old Testament context applying the Beatitude in a contemporary context
