Bebop Express:

Bebop Express H. L. Panahi, 2005-05-24 A rollicking rhythmic express train takes passengers on a jazzy journey that celebrates the United States and its unique musical culture

The Bebop Express Heather Panahi, 2007-04-01 Jazz Fiction David Rife, 2008 Nearly 700 works by over 500 authors are presented in Jazz Fiction: A History and Comprehensive Reader's Guide, a comprehensive annotated bibliography of stories and novels that contain a jazz component. Presenting a valuable overview of the history of the genre from its beginnings to the near present, the book compartmentalizes the titles into literature genres such as children, teen, and young adult stories, mystery and detective fiction, fantasy, and science fiction. Women and jazz works based on the lives of actual jazz artists, international jazz fiction representing over 20 countries, and even Jazz Fiction Sans Music books that imply musical content but actually have none are included. A series of sub-genres such as Big Band and Swing, Blues, Pulp and Smut, and Novelizations are identified, providing examples of works that characterize these categories and offering readers with specialized interests an easy reference. Also included are two short lists: one for short stories, the other for novels, giving readers who desire to learn more about jazz fiction suggestions on where to begin. David Rife's annotations qualify as short critical essays, generally providing a jargon-free, often witty presentation, making them a pleasure to read. Broad in scope, meticulously researched, and comprehensive, with titles that have long been inaccessible, this definitive resource is essential for libraries and valuable to scholars and fans of jazz and literature.

The Big Book of Children's Reading Lists Nancy J. Keane, 2006-04-30 Use these 100 handy reproducible book lists to instantly create handouts for teachers and parents, as well as for older readers, to add to your newsletter or to post on your Web site or bulletin board. Based on the most common needs of educators and librarians who work with young readers, these lists focus on new titles as well as classics that are still in print and readily available for purchase. Fiction and nonfiction titles for ages 5-14 are covered. Bibliographic information and a brief description are given for each title. A dozen bookmarks are also included. This is a great time-saving tool and a good source for finding extended reading lists and read-alikes. Looking for folktales from China for elementary children? An informational children's book for a middle school science class? A list of books on the topic of compassion? A sampling of ABC books? These lists and more can be found in Nancy Keane's treasury of great reading lists for children. This versatile guide provides reproducible book lists based on the most common needs of educators and librarians who work with young readers. There are lists for standard curriculum areas, e.g., math, social studies, science, other areas of study such as character education and values, genres, e.g., pop-up, memoirs, ABC books, themes, e.g., animals, food, sports, and read-alikes, on bookmarks. You'll find 100 reproducible lists of fiction and nonfiction books for ages 5-14, elementary, middle, that you can use to create handouts for teachers and parents, as well as for older readers, put in your newsletter, or post on your Web site or bulletin board. Focus is on new titles and classics that are still in print and readily available for purchase. On each list, titles are grouped according to grade level. Room to customize with your library logo or clipart is provided on each
