Courtship. A Photographic Investigation of Romantic Engagement Lydia Cook,2015-09-17 Master s Thesis from the year 2011 in the subject Art Photography and Film grade Masters of Design with Merit UNITEC New Zealand course Master of Design Majoring in Photography language English abstract The research question of my project is concerned with the evolution of romantic courtship with reference to the influence of fairytale conventions The project aims to produce a photographic series and exegesis which explore the constructs embodied in traditional fairytales in the context of social and aesthetic behaviours in courtship The project started with an investigation of both academic references and contemporary artists My Initial experimentation created works that communicated ideas surrounding themes such as fairytales romance and gender confusion I became interested in finding connections between academic and creative concepts such as the aesthetics of gender identity and the psychology of courtship and fairytales By engaging in a creative process and exploring references that influenced the works I was able to question and explore these themes through performing roles of both genders within the creation of characters This exegesis essentially tracks my creative process research and the questions and challenges I

Sloan, 1999 Now that Reagan's achievements and failures have become more obvious it is time for a new nonpartisan appraisal of his leadership and its impact on the nation That is precisely what John Sloan delivers Sloan focuses especially on the questions raised in the highly polemical debates between conservatives and liberals concerning Reagan's economic policies He gives equal time to both sides showing how liberals were wrong in their predictions of gloom while conservatives continue to grant Reagan more credit and status than he deserves Global Cultural Studies? Tobias Jetter, 2023-05-03 Can cultural studies attend to the problems of our globalized world Or is this project of engaged scholarship too deeply rooted in the parochial terrain of the national This collection of essays the first volume in the new JMU Cultural Studies publication series attends to this vital yet difficult question Based on joint seminars bringing together emerging scholars from Germany and India the contributions confront classic texts from US American British and Indian cultural studies with the specific concerns and contemporary perspectives of the authors The collection thus tests the potentials of the tradition to speak to the transnational as well as the national environments of the very present Emphasis is placed on Marxist and feminist legacies which are then projected into the domains of contemporary disability food and film studies Magdalenes Channing Hayden, 1998-12 Can a beautiful young woman's native wit and uncommon intelligence overcome an overpowering and deep seated guilt that is destroying her life That's the central question of Magdalenes the story of Sarah Beth LaBranche's fall rise and eventual triumph When Sarah Beth rents a room from Annette Cheramie and meets the regal Creole lady's grandson Frank her life is forever changed Sarah Beth becomes Frank's nurse accountant and research assistant Collecting his bills helping him with patients using the latest in Victorian medical treatments and seeking a cure for a blinding eye disease she falls in love with him Now her terrible secret must be kept from the two people she holds most dear her mother and Frank Ever fearful that Frank will discover the awful truth about her Sarah Beth helps him battle the 1905 Yellow Fever Epidemic fighting ignorance corruption and bigotry in a heroic struggle to help Frank banish his own demons But each victory brings Sarah Beth's secret closer to being discovered Magdalenes is not a typical romance nor the usual medical thriller Scrupulously researched it blends the best elements of these genres into a compelling historical novel of tragedy betrayal and redemption Pearson's Magazine ,1905 My little friend; or, The child's own pleasure book, the Golden childhood vol. for Christmas, 1877 Golden childhood, 1877 The Post Magazine and Insurance Monitor ,1930
