Artist And Political Vision:

The Artist and Political Vision Benjamin R. Barber, Michael J. Gargas McGrath, Art and politics are often regarded as denizens of different realms but few artists have been comfortable with the notion of a purely aesthetic definition of art The artist has a public and thus political vision of the world interpreted by his art no less than the statesman and the legislator have a creative vision of the world they wish to make The sixteen original essays in this volume bear eloquent witness to this interpenetration of art and politics Each confronts the intersection of the aesthetic and the social each is concerned with the interface of poetic vision and political vision of reflection and action They take art in the broadest sense ranging over poets dramatists novelists essayists and filmmakers Their focus is on art and its political dilemmas not simply on the artist They consider the issues raised for politics and culture by alienation violence modernization technology democracy progress and revolution And they debate the capacity of art to stimulate social change and incite revolution the temptations of social control of culture and of political censorship the uncertain relationship between art and history the impact of economic structure on artistic creation and of economic class on artistic product the common ground between art and legislation and between creativity and control The Artist and Political Vision Benjamin R. Barber, Michael J. Gargas McGrath, 1982 Art and politics are often regarded as denizens of different realms but few artists have been comfortable with the notion of a purely aesthetic definition of art The artist has a public and thus political vision of the world interpreted by his art no less than the statesman and the legislator have a creative vision of the world they wish to make The sixteen original essays in this volume bear eloquent witness to this interpenetration of art and politics Each confronts the intersection of the aesthetic and the social each is concerned with the interface of poetic vision and political vision of reflection and action They take art in the broadest sense ranging over poets dramatists novelists essayists and filmmakers Their focus is on art and its political dilemmas not simply on the artist They consider the issues raised for politics and culture by alienation violence modernization technology democracy progress and revolution And they debate the capacity of art to stimulate social change and incite revolution the temptations of social control of culture and of political censorship the uncertain relationship between art and history the impact of economic structure on artistic creation and of economic class on artistic product the common ground between art and legislation and between creativity and control *Literary, Scientific, and Political Views of Orestes A. issued as supplements to the Academy v 79 Oct 15 Nov 5 Dec 3 and 31 1910 Art, Politics, and Cultural Identification in Sudan Mohamed A. Abusabib,2004 It is now widely acknowledged that the issue of Sudan s cultural and political identity is one of the root causes of the Sudanese crisis that has crippled the country since its independence in 1956 and plunged it into a civil war regarded as the longest in Africa Nevertheless this issue continues to be a grossly neglected topic in scholarship concerning Sudan On the other hand the politics of intellectual and artistic production have been inseparable from the pivotal issue of identity ever since the advent of Sudanese nationalism in the 1920s But there has yet been no publication dedicated to the topic of identity as one of the major concerns in modern Sudanese artistic production This study thus undertakes a critical examination of key discourses concerning the cultural basis of modern Sudanese literature visual art music and dance and it attempts to highlight their underlying political and ideological orientations The terms Arabism Afro Arabism Africanism Islamism and Sudanism have developed within these discourses as defining concepts describing the country s ethnic and cultural origins thereby serving as identity constructs The study also examines the relation between the political and the artistic institutions as well as the policy of the Islamization of the Arts launched by the present Islamist regime and its outcome The study may also be viewed as an endeavor to discover within the aesthetic field the missing Sudanese collective memory Stated otherwise this is an effort to redeem the lost Sudanese pedigree that has long been deliberately mystified misconceived and misconstrued for the for the sake of certain political and cultural strategies Another aim of the study is to introduce Sudanese arts and the specific Sudanese aesthetic political debate concerning the topics of culture and identity to both the general reader and specialists as well as to Africanists in general and scholars of African arts and literature in particular The Eclectic Magazine of Foreign Literature, Science, and Art ,1889 Unto this Last & Other Essays on Art and Political Economy John Ruskin,1909 Encyclopædia of Religion and Ethics: A-Art James Hastings,John Alexander Selbie,Louis Herbert Gray,1908 Scope theology philosophy ethics of various religions and ethical systems and relevant portions of anthropology mythology folklore biology psychology economics and sociology Historical sketch of the art and literary institutions of Wolverhampton, from 1794 to 1897 Joseph Jones (of Wolverhampton.),1897
