As I Recall:

As I Recall George H. Tsegeletos, 2003 AS I RECALL is a series of short stories recalling personal experiences of the author when a young Marine serving in Korea Unlike most memoirs describing the horrors of war Tsegeletos describes the sights sounds and what is most fascinating the thoughts that ran through his mind during each incident An occasional quip added while engaged in life threatening action brings to the reader lighthearted relief to what at the very least is serious business indeed At the age of 17 George along with many of his high school friends joined a Marine reserve unit located close to home 1950 and half way around the globe North Korea invaded South Korea but to these young Marines it seemed too far away to be of much concern Looking forward to their graduation summer vacation and beginning a new career whether college or work their world is suddenly turned upside down when they are rushed into a very uncertain military future From his first step on North Korean soil through each story that follows including the final narrative describing the experience of survival in the cold frozen environment during the epic Chosin Reservoir Campaign you will be taking each step with him Included are illustrations interspersed between stories and copies of actual letters sent home The book leaves you with a true picture of life in a foxhole as seen through the eyes of a young Marine Tsegeletos will hold the readers attention and win the hearts of all moms with a young son in the U S Marines

As I Recall Ysaac Chabo, 2008-02-01 The purpose of this book is simply to share with the readers the events some very intense that strongly impacted my life It is written directly from my memory therefore some dates might not be exact but the events are as clear in my mind as at the time of their occurrence It is a journey from oppression to freedom and a profound expression of gratitude to Spain which made the journey faster and easier by granting our visas in less than four hours and allowed us to stay in that beautiful and hospitable country for almost five months and to our adoptive motherland the United States of America for welcoming us to the land of the free and the home of the brave The very difficult situations described in this book had a positive aspect because each one of them made our character stronger and our faith firmer as a gift from God whose power and mercy we felt every time there was a problem that we could not solve in our own It is not necessary to add anything else at this time The book presents a clear narrative of the journey where the reader may also find diversity a recently used and abused concept at work I let the reader discover the character building struggles and the spiritual growth that was directly proportional to the intensity of the hardships and overt or covert persecution As Father M rito Gonz lez said in Spain during a homily How do we know our strengths without tests and trials Let s make faith hope and love the most important pillars of life and we will find that with God we can cross raging waters walking on a bridge of rotten wood Enjoy

As I Recall Joseph N. Manfredo, 2014-07-28 This is the story of a one day bicycle ride taken by an eighty year old man along the Southern California Beach bike path for a twenty four mile round trip As he stops to meet people and observe events he is reminded of similar people places and events from his past These memories comprise a series of vignettes filled with historical facts humor pathos and nostalgia From early childhood memories through school crushes and a myriad of his and others experiences the book tells short stories that are at times humorous sometimes profound and always memorable Historical moments taken from World War II and the Korean Conflict are retold alongside personal adventures with such things as horse and motorcycle ownership creating a captivating juxtaposition of serious and humorous events The view presented in this book gives a unique look into the mind of an older person who has lived a full and memorable life As I Recall Don Ewing,2009-08 As I Recall is the memoirs of Don Ewing of Guelph Canada an active supporter of the social democratic movement for more than 65 years He has been an important contributor to Canadian life and to Canadian social history His passion for inclusivity and social justice led him to buck society s pressures to be a conscientious objector in the Second World War doing fire fighting and teaching high school in a Japanese internment camp in Lemon Creek The book contains many photographs and personal reminiscences on the life and growth of the social democratic process in Canada his music teaching and his life in the United Church In the Supreme Court of the State of New York, Appellate Division Third Judicial Department ,1918 Investigation Relative to Wages and Prices of Commodities United States.
