Asian Democracy in World History Alan Thomas Wood, 2004 Traces the evolution of democracy from its origins in prehistoric times and describes democratic growth in thirteen Asian countries from Japan in East Asia to Pakistan in South Asia

Asian Democracy in World History Alan T. Wood, 2016-04-29 Taking a comparative approach Alan T Wood traces the evolution of democracy from its origins in prehistoric times and describes democratic growth in thirteen Asian countries from Japan in East Asia to Pakistan in South Asia and examines key issues such as How does the democratic experience in Asia in countries with unique and totalitarian political traditions compare with democracies worldwide Is the aspiration to freedom universal or is it a product of western ideas and institutions

Gendering International Relations in the Asian Context Ani W. Soetjipto, Yusnarida Eka Nizmi, Rahmi Yulia, Elisabeth Dewi, Henny Rosalinda, Gena Lysistrata, Yessi Olivia, Umunnisa Hidayati, Arif Wicaksa, Purwasandi, Syahroni Alby, Tuah Kalti Takwa, Diah Kusumaningrum, Dhanisa Salsha Handiani, Umi Oktyari Retnaningsih, 2025-08-22 What happens when the traditional Western dominated lens of International Relations IR is disrupted by voices from the margins especially those shaped by gender and rooted in Asian realities Gendering International Relations in the Asian Context offers a bold and necessary reimagining of IR by centering gender as a critical axis of analysis in the Asian region In a field historically shaped by state centric and masculinist paradigms this volume breaks new ground by weaving together narratives that highlight the lived experiences struggles and agency of individuals and communities often left out of global political discourse Across nine thought provoking chapters scholars and practitioners explore how gender intersects with power identity and diplomacy in the uniquely complex and diverse socio political terrains of Asia From deeply personal reflections on Asian feminism to incisive critiques of peacebuilding processes and foreign policy the book examines how women navigate the intersections of conflict migration displacement development and environmental justice Whether unpacking the gendered dimensions of international agreements evaluating gender mainstreaming in development programs or interrogating democratic participation and SOGIESC diversity in classrooms this book insists that gender is not a peripheral issue in IR it is central to understanding how the world operates Far from being just a regional study Gendering International Relations in the Asian Context challenges scholars students and policymakers alike to reconsider the foundations of the discipline It invites readers to ask What does it mean to theorize IR from the Global South And what new possibilities emerge when we let gender lead the way

Globalization and Civil Society in East Asian Space Khatharya Um, Chiharu Takenaka, 2022-12-30 This book critically examines the impact of globalization changing power dynamics migration and evolving rights regimes on regional order discourse of national governance state and society relations and the development of civil society in East Asia Providing a textured critical reading of East Asia as an economically socially and politically dynamic region this book also presents the region as one shaped simultaneously by progressive as well as regressive pulls Attentive to prevailing issues as well as to states and civil societies responses to them it focuses on changing societies and politics in East Asia particularly on shifting notions of citizenship nationhood and peoplehood The contributions feature new and timely conclusions drawn from multidisciplinary fields including law public policy sociology Asian studies gender sexuality and ethnic studies and include direct testimonies from citizens of East and Southeast Asia Globalization and Civil Society in East Asian Space will appeal to students and scholars of sociology political science and Asian studies more broadly

Routledge Handbook of Southeast Asian Democratization William Case,2015-04-24 Southeast Asia an economically dynamic and strategically vital region seemed until recently to be transiting to more democratic politics This progress has suddenly stalled or even gone into reverse requiring that analysts seriously rethink their expectations and theorizing The Routledge Handbook of Southeast Asian Democratization provides the first book length account of the reasons for democracy s declining fortunes in the region today Combining theory and case studies it is structured in four major sections Stunted Trajectories and Unhelpful Milieus Wavering Social Forces Uncertain Institutions Country cases and democratic guises This interdisciplinary reference work addresses topics including the impact of belief systems historical records regional and global contexts civil society ethnicity women Islam and social media The performance of political institutions is also assessed and the volume offers a series of in depth case studies evaluating the country records of particular democratic hybrid and authoritarian regimes from a democratization perspective Bringing together nearly 30 key international experts in the field this cutting edge Handbook offers a comprehensive and fresh investigation into democracy in the region This timely survey will be essential reading for scholars and students of Democratization and Asian Politics as well as policymakers concerned with democracy s setbacks in Southeast Asia and the implications for the region s citizens

Theo-Politics? Markus Höfner,2021-10-25 Using the theological work of Karl Barth as a resource for present day inquiry the contributors in this volume discuss the complex interconnections between the religious and the political designated by the term theo politics Speaking from various political and cultural contexts Germany the United Kingdom the United States Hong Kong Taiwan and the People s Republic of China and different disciplinary perspectives Protestant Theology Political Sciences and Sociology the contributors address contemporary challenges in relating the religious and the political in Western and Asian societies Topics analyzed include the impact of diverse cultural backgrounds on given theo political arrangements theological assessments of political power the political significance of individual and communal Christian existence and the place of Christian communities in civil societies In their nuanced discussions of these topics the contributors neither advocate for a privatized apolitical understanding of the Christian faith nor for a religious politics seeking to overcome modern processes of differentiation and secularization Critically engaging Barth s theology they examine the Christian responsibility in and for the political sphere and reflect on the practice of such responsibility in Western and Asian contexts

The East Asian Challenge for Human Rights Joanne R. Bauer, Daniel A. Bell,1999-02-13 The East Asian Challenge for Human Rights shows that critical intellectuals in East Asia have begun to chart a middle ground between the extremes of the international debate on human rights making particular headway in the areas of group rights and economic social and cultural ethnic minority rights The chapters form a collective intellectual inquiry into the following areas critical perspectives on the Asian values debate theoretical proposals for an improved international human rights regime with greater input from East Asians the resources within East Asian cultural traditions that can help promote human rights and key human rights issues facing East Asia as a result of rapid economic growth in the region Designing History in East Asian Textbooks Gotelind Mueller,2011-02-01 This book analyses the efforts throughout East Asia to deploy education for purposes of political socialization and in particular in order to shape notions of identity The chapters also examine the trend of common textbook initiatives which have recently emerged in East Asia with the aim of helping to defuse tensions arguably fuelled by existing practices of mutual mis representation These are analysed in relation to the East Asian political context and compared with previous and ongoing endeavours in other parts of the world particularly Europe which have been keenly observed by East Asian practitioners Written by a group of international education experts chapters discuss the enduring focus on the role of curricula in inculcating homogenous visions of the national self and indeed homogenized visions of significant others Including contributions from scholars and curriculum developers involved personally in the writing of national and multi national history textbooks this book will be of interest to students and scholars of Asian education Asian history and comparative education studies Gotelind M ller is Professor of Chinese Studies University of Heidelberg Germany
