Bastiansen, Martin Klimke, Rolf Werenskjold, 2018-11-08 The Cold War was a media phenomenon It was a daily cultural political struggle for the hearts and minds of ordinary people and for government leaders a struggle to undermine their enemies ability to control the domestic public sphere This collection examines how this struggle played out on screen radio and in print from the late 1970s through the early 1990s a time when breaking news stories such as Ronald Reagan's Star Wars program and Mikhail Gorbachev's policy of glasnost captured the world's attention Ranging from the United States to the Soviet Union and China these essays cover photojournalism on both sides of the Iron Curtain Polish punk Norwegian film Soviet magazines and more concluding with a contribution from Stuart Franklin one of the creators of the iconic Tank Man image during the Tiananmen Square protests By investigating an array of media actors and networks as well as narrative and visual frames on a local and transnational level this volume lays the groundwork for writing media into the history of the late Cold War Air university review, 1981, 1981 Playing with the Past Matthew Wilhelm Kapell, Andrew B.R.
