As I Ponder:

As I Rhymember It! Finbar Hanaghan, 2023-08-18 This little volume of poems and short stories is an absolute gem It is the first time these writers have cooperated on a work published in the UK they are already both published in Europe The mix of verse and stories makes it easy for the reader to pause and reflect when required The theme is relationships remembered and Rhymembered with plenty of poetic licence Relationships in all their forms noble spiritual sensual and sexual The wanting the chasing the capture the high octane climaxes and all that follows Sadly sometimes abject failure and painful defeat All human emotion is here raw and unexpurgated The twist is the way the authors decide to treat their subject Doom and gloom play no part in this work It s light wry and lively throughout As I Rhymember It uses wit to smooth and sooth the many emotional extremes But this is no bedroom expose The action takes place in a variety of settings as diverse as a golf club AGM a travelling Victorian circus big top a suburban restaurant and a European shopping Mall For an ever changing backdrop to the ever changing world of human relationships look no further than As I Rhymember It by Finbar Hanaghan from the original ideas of Barry Thomas Harris

I Beg Your Damn Pardon - Was It Something I Said? Earl Roberts Big Brother, Earl Roberts, 2000 We re proud to introduce a new controversial dynamic book featuring hard ball prose and social racial storytelling delivered with deadly force a Hell fire and brimstone style No other opinionated writer can stand up against the wit and versatility that comes through this obviously caring unchained package af experiential thoughts and urban prose Engaging and clever as any recent radical Black writer produced by the same concrete jungles that have given America Jazz Hip Hop and baggy pants I Beg Your Damn Pardon literally kept both Blacks and Whites on our staff turning its pages and debating the serious issues raised long into the night I Beg Your Damn Pardon is a red black and green poetic magnum opus of truth telling as echoed from the heart of a Black American This book this classic work demands honest critique and an open mind as the contents slam us into the often hidden face of Black folk Sometimes it s an angry face still standing in the shadows of prejudice and hate holding an alley apple a red house brick used for throwing at one s enemies Alley apples can hurt us as projectiles when thrown at us but this book is a well composed hard
