The Pedagogy of Protest Brendan Walsh,2007 This book provides the first complete account of Patrick Pearse s educational work at St Enda s and St Ita s schools Dublin Extensive use of first hand accounts reveals Pearse as a humane energetic teacher and a forward looking and innovative educational thinker Between 1903 and 1916 Pearse developed a new concept of schooling as an agency of radical pedagogical and social reform later echoed by school founders such as Bertrand Russell This placed him firmly within the tradition of radical educational thought as articulated by Paulo Freire and Henry Giroux The book examines the tension between Pearse s work and his increasingly public profile as an advocate of physical force separatism and by employing previously unknown accounts questions the perception that he influenced his students to become active supporters of militant separatism The book describes the later history of St Enda s revealing the ambivalence of post independence administrations and shows how Pearse s work which has long been neglected by historians has had a direct influence on a later generation of school founders up to the present

War and Sex John V. H. Dippel,2011-09-27 Dippel reviews social circumstances leading up to conflicts from the American Civil War through the Vietnam War and the current clash with Islamic fundamentalists and explores how tensions over gender roles affect men s willingness to go to war

Dictionary Of Atheism Skepticism & Humanism Bill Cooke,2009-12-30 In the tradition of Voltaire s Philosophical Dictionary Ambrose Bierce s Devil s Dictionary and Joseph McCabe s Rationalist Encyclopedia this accessible dictionary addresses the contemporary need for a reference book that succinctly summarizes the key concepts current terminology and major contributions of influential thinkers broadly associated with atheism skepticism and humanism In the preface author Bill Cooke notes that his work is intended for freethinkers in the broadest sense of the word people who like to think for themselves and not according to the preplanned routes set by others This dictionary will serve as a guide for all those people striving to lead fulfilling morally responsible lives without religious belief Readers are offered a wide range of concepts from ancient well known notions such as God free will and evil to new concepts such as eupraxsophy Also included are current buzzwords that have some bearing on the freethought worldview such as metrosexual The names of many people whose lives or work reflect freethought principles form a major portion of the entries Finally a humanist calendar is included on which events of interest to freethinkers are noted This unique accessible and highly informative work will be a welcome addition to the libraries of open minded people of all philosophic persuasions
