Dorothy Dainty:

Dorothy Dainty at the Shore Amy Brooks, 1905      Dorothy Dainty at the Mountains Amy Brooks, 2023-07-13 Dorothy Dainty at the Mountains by Amy Brooks is a charming tale set in a picturesque mountain hotel where young Dorothy Dainty and her friend Nancy Ferris spend their summer. The story unfolds with the girls exploring the natural beauty around them, particularly enjoying the echoes that respond to their calls. Their peaceful days are occasionally interrupted by the antics of Floretta Paxton, a mischievous child known for her mimicry which often leads to humorous yet troublesome situations. The arrival of Flossie Barnet and her family, including the jovial Uncle Harry, adds to the excitement. Uncle Harry's plan to take the children to a local country fair promises a delightful adventure. The narrative is interspersed with interactions with other hotel guests, including a stern old lady who resembles a fairy tale character, adding a whimsical touch to the story. The book captures the essence of childhood curiosity and the joy of simple pleasures set against the backdrop of a serene mountain retreat. The characters' interactions highlight themes of friendship, kindness, and the occasional challenges of dealing with difficult personalities.

Dorothy Dainty at Foam Ridge Amy Brooks, 1918      Dorothy Dainty At Glenmore Amy Brooks, 2023-07-13 Dorothy Dainty at Glenmore by Amy Brooks is a captivating tale set in the picturesque Glenmore School where Dorothy Dainty and her friend Nancy Ferris embark on a new chapter of their lives. The story begins with Dorothy and Nancy adjusting to their new environment, meeting fellow students and navigating the challenges of school life. The narrative introduces a variety of characters, including the mischievous Vera Vane and her friend Elfreda Carleton, who are known for their playful antics. Patricia Levine and Arabella Correyville, two other students from Merrivale, add to the dynamic with their shifting personalities and humorous escapades. The plot thickens as the girls encounter the strict Miss Fenler, who oversees the students with a keen eye. Despite the rules, Vera and Elf manage to smuggle treats into the school, leading to a secret midnight feast that almost gets them into trouble. Meanwhile, Ida Mayo, a new student, struggles with her self-image and attempts to improve her complexion with a tonic, only to face unexpected results. Throughout the story, themes of friendship, self-discovery, and the trials of growing up are explored. Dorothy and Nancy's bond strengthens as they support each other through the ups and downs of school life. The book captures the essence of youth with its blend of humor, adventure, and the occasional lesson learned the hard way.

Dorothy Dainty at the Mountains (Classic Reprint) Amy Brooks, 2018-01-23
Excerpt from Dorothy Dainty at the Mountains: The fair haired little girl had eyes as blue as the blue blossoms that she held in her hand while her playmate's eyes were soft and brown and told that her heart was loving and true. The little blue eyed girl was Dorothy Dainty and the child who clasped her hand was her dearest friend Nancy Ferris. Nancy had no parents and a few years before Dorothy's mamma had taken her under her care and protection and she was being trained and educated as carefully as was Dorothy, the little daughter of the house.
