Dostoevsky And Suicide:

Dostoevsky as Suicidologist Amy D. Ronner,2021-01-12 In Dostoevsky as Suicidologist Amy D Ronner illustrates how self homicide in Fyodor Dostoevsky s fiction prefigures Emile Durkheim s etiology in Suicide as well as theories of other prominent suicidologists This book not only fills a lacuna in Dostoevsky scholarship but provides fresh readings of Dostoevsky s major works including Notes from The House of the Dead Crime and Punishment The Idiot Demons and The Brothers Karamazov Ronner provides an exegesis of how Dostoevsky s implicit awareness of fatalistic altruistic egoistic and anomic modes of self destruction helped shape not only his philosophy but also his craft as a writer In this study Ronner contributes to the field of suicidology by anatomizing both self destructive behavior and suicidal ideation while offering ways to think about prevention But most expansively Ronner tackles the formidable task of forging a ligature between artistic creation and the pluripresent social fact of self annihilation

Dostoevsky and Suicide N. N. Shneidman,1984 Suicide as a Cultural Institution in Dostoevsky's Russia Irina Paperno,2018-09-05 In the popular and scientific imagination suicide has always been an enigmatic act that defies and yet demands explanation Throughout the centuries philosophers and writers journalists and scientists have attempted to endow this act with meaning In the nineteenth century and especially in Russia suicide became the focus for discussion of such issues as the immortality of the soul free will and determinism the physical and the spiritual the individual and the social Analyzing a variety of sources medical reports social treatises legal codes newspaper articles fiction private documents left by suicides Irina Paperno describes the search for the meaning of suicide Paperno focuses on Russia of the 1860s 1880s when suicide was at the center of public attention

Fyodor Dostoevsky, Walker Percy, and the Age of Suicide John F. Desmond,2019-01-09 Fyodor Dostoevsky Walker Percy and the Age of Suicide is a study of the phenomenon of suicide in modern and post modern society as represented in the major fictional works of Fyodor Dostoevsky and Walker Percy In his study suicide is understood in both a literal and spiritual sense as referring to both the actual suicides in their works and to the broader social malaise of spiritual suicide or despair In the 19th century Dostoevsky called suicide the terrible question of our age For his part Percy understood 20th century Western culture as suicidal in both its social political and military behavior and in the deeper sense that its citizenry had suffered an ontological loss of self or deformation of being Likewise Thomas Merton called the 20th century an age of suicide

Dostoevsky and Suicide: A Study of the Major Characters Julien Appignani,2012 Dostoevsky s great tragic characters dramatize the moral philosophical and religious themes that permeate his great novels Crime and Punishment 1866 the Idiot 1868 9 the Devils 1871 2 and the Brothers Karamazov 1879 80 For Dostoevsky these characters embody the destructive and self destructive consequences of the ideas of atheism nihilism and egoism that the Russian intelligentsia absorbed largely from the West These consequences take the form of a despairing faithlessness valuelessness and lovelessness in human life Almost without exception Dostoevsky s great tragic characters who embody the despair of the existence bleached and blighted by these ideas are driven to suicide This dissertation is a study of these characters how they embody this despair why they are driven to suicide Dostoevsky and Suicide Daniel Bures,1962 Embodied Differences Henrietta Mondry,2021-03-02 This book analyzes the ways in which literary works and cultural discourses employ the construct of the Jew s body in relation to the material world in order either to establish and reinforce or to subvert and challenge dominant cultural norms and stereotypes It examines the use of physical characteristics embodied practices tacit knowledge and senses to define the body taxonomically as normative different abject or mimetically desired Starting from the works of Gogol and Dostoevsky through to contemporary Russian Jewish women s writing broadening the scope to examining the role of objects museum displays and the politics of heritage food the book argues that materiality can embody fictional constructions that should be approached on a culture specific basis Dostoevsky's Religion Steven Cassedy,2005-05-02 Any reader of Dostoevsky is immediately struck by the importance of religion within the world of his fiction That said it is very difficult to locate a coherent set of religious beliefs within Dostoevsky s works and to argue that the writer embraced these beliefs This book provides a trenchant reassessment of his religion by showing how Dostoevsky used his writings as the vehicle for an intense probing of the nature of Christianity of the individual meaning of belief and doubt and of the problems of ethical behavior that arise from these questions The author argues that religion represented for Dostoevsky a welter of conflicting views and stances from philosophical idealism to nationalist messianism The strength of this study lies in its recognition of the absence of a single religious prescription in Dostoevsky s works as well as in its success in tracing the background of the ideas animating Dostoevsky s religious probing Gentle Spirit Fyodor Dostoevsky,2019-02-08 A Gentle Creature is a 1876 short story by Fyodor Dostoyevsky Inspired by a real story of a seamstress who committed suicide in 1876 it chronicles the relationship between a girl and a pawnbroker whose shop she visits frequently When a 16 year old girl frequently pawns her belongings so that she can advertise as a governess in the newspaper her dire financial situation is made apparent to the shop owner and narrator who resolves to give her as much as he can for the things she brings After some investigating our narrator learns that she answers to two greedy aunts who have arranged a marriage for her that promises to be abusive In an attempt to save her from that fate he himself proposes to the young woman who accepts However perhaps things would have gone better if he had never proposed at all Fyodor Mikhailovich Dostoevsky 1821 881 was a Russian novelist essayist short story writer journalist and philosopher His literature examines human psychology during the turbulent social spiritual and political atmosphere of 19th century Russia and he is considered one of the greatest psychologists in world literature A prolific writer Dostoevsky produced 11 novels three novellas 17 short stories and numerous other works This volume is not to be missed by fans of Russian literature and lovers of Dostoevsky s seminal work Many vintage books such as this are increasingly scarce and expensive We are republishing this volume now in an affordable modern high quality edition complete with a specially commissioned new biography of the author The Art of Dostoevsky's Falling Sick Brain R.
